

SPECIAL EVENT AT ST. JOHN'S IN THE VILLAGE!

ART FAIR!

SATURDAY, MARCH 16

1:00 PM TO 6:00 PM

THE REVELATION GALLERY

224 WAVERLY PLACE

Join us for this one-day pop-up art happening to celebrate Village visual artists, writers and performers.

Funds raised will benefit
SAGE (Advocacy & Services for LGBTQ+ elders) and St. John's Community Programs.

Featured will be a play reading of the political revue,
The Radon Daughters on The Staten Island Ferry
with scenes and poetry addressing partisan politics of the day, mental health and the need for civic education.

Writers/Actors are Jack Arcigal, Naoko Battaglia,
Dolan Byrnes, Lois Anne DeLong,
Michael Fairbairn, Dorothea Gloria, Carol Orito, Bronwyn Rucker and James Tomkins.

The reading culminates with audience discussion.

The reading will be at 2:00 pm.

The ART FAIR originates from The Backyard ART FAIR presented for many years by Julius' on West 10th Street celebrating artists who are staff and patrons of Julius'.

Backyard Fair artists are participants in St. John's In the Village Art Fair.

Visual artists include Michael Perez, Bronwyn Rucker, Chad Thompson and James Wilson.

The Revelation Gallery is part of St. John's In The Village.
St. John's has supported the community with diverse programs and events for many years.
For further information of its programs: <https://www.stjvny.org/arts-upcoming>

For further information on the ART FAIR contact Bronwyn Rucker at downmelt@aol.com
www.bronwynrucker.com