

YWCA Teen Leadership Program

Attention
Young Men and Women,

Join our acting company!

Fight relationship violence!

30 Third Avenue
Brooklyn, NY 11217
For information call:
718/875-1190,
ext. 250 or 201

◆ How to get to the YWCA: The YWCA of Brooklyn is centrally located at 30 Third Avenue, corner of Atlantic, in downtown Brooklyn. By Subway: Take the 2, 3, 4, 5, Q or D trains to Atlantic Avenue; the B, M, N or R trains to Pacific Street or the A, C or G to Hoyt-Schermerhorn. By Bus: Take buses along Flatbush Avenue, the B37, B41, B45, B65 or B67 to Atlantic Avenue, or the B63 to Third and Atlantic.

ENROLL IN THE YWCA TEEN THEATER PEER TRAINING PROGRAM

- ◆ Become an actor!
- ◆ Become a director!
- ◆ Become a peer educator!
- ◆ Perform at community centers and outdoor festivals

A great opportunity to meet other young men and women to discuss concerns in your life: racism, sexism, relationship violence, violence against young people.

Auditions
Any Wednesday
5:30 pm - 7:30 pm
YWCA of Brooklyn
No experience necessary

The Theater Peer Training Program is under the direction of Bronwyn Rucker, Director of Meltdown and the YWCA Teen Drama Program. This program is funded by the Office of the Mayor Stop the Violence Fund, the YWCA of Brooklyn and Meltdown, Inc.

SPECIAL WORKSHOPS WILL FOCUS ON

- ◆ Conflict Resolution
- ◆ Leadership training
- ◆ Building healthy relationships – learn the difference between abusive and respectful relationships
- ◆ Anger management
- ◆ Acting – includes improvisational techniques, scene study, character study, voice and movement exercises for the actor.