

A new tax credit for Washington workers starts in 2023!

Working Families Tax Credit will provide payments up to $1,200 to individuals and families who meet certain eligibility requirements.

Who is eligible for a tax credit?

Individuals and families are eligible for the Working Families Tax Credit if they meet all of the following requirements:

- Lived in Washington a minimum of 183 days.
- Are at least 25 and under 65 years of age OR have a qualifying child in 2022.
- Filed a 2022 federal tax return.
- Eligible to claim the federal Earned Income Tax Credit on their 2022 tax return.
 - Go to www.irs.gov/eitc to learn more.
- Meet certain income requirements (see table).

How much will individuals and families get back?

The Working Families Tax Credit is dependent on the number of qualifying children and income level. The minimum credit is $50, regardless of the number of qualifying children. See table for estimates based on the 2021 income eligibility thresholds.

What are the income thresholds?

Number of qualifying children	Applicant must make less than the following		Maximum credit amount
	Single	Married (filing jointly)
0	$16,480*	$22,610*	$300
1	$43,492*	$49,622*	$600
2	$49,399*	$55,529*	$900
3 or more	$53,057*	$59,187*	$1,200

Income eligibility thresholds are estimates only, based on the 2021 federal Earned Income Tax Credit. Eligibility thresholds may change for subsequent tax years.*

Applications open in 2023 for the 2022 tax year and are accepted through December 31, 2023.
