Just 'cuz

A healthy, preservative free, all natural treat! Customers kept asking for a non-supplement treat they could give their furry besties just because they deserved a treat. From that, Just 'cuz was born.

A blend of local, raw honey and organic pumpkin from Bany Bee Farm in West Linn, can help your dog develop a natural immunity to pollens in the area. So, while it doesn't contain supplements, it is still a healthy and beneficial treat you can give your fur baby, Just 'cuz!
