Geneva YMCA's Summerfest 2025 Promises Unforgettable Weekend of Fun and Entertainment

Geneva, NY – April 29, 2025 – The Geneva Family YMCA is thrilled to announce that Summerfest 2025, scheduled for July 11–12, is set to be the Finger Lakes' most exciting summer event. With free admission, live music, fireworks, games, and food, this two-day festival offers something for everyone.

Festival Highlights:

- Live Music & Fireworks: Kick off the festivities on Friday, July 11, with a performance by The Bob Greco Band from 7:00 to 9:15 p.m., followed by a spectacular fireworks display.

On Saturday, July 12, enjoy DJ Bob Gilbert starting at 1:00 p.m., with games, contests and entertainment plus the Geneva Firefighters Parade at 7:00 p.m., and a live concert by Dos Locos immediately after the parade.

- Delicious Food & Beverages: Savor new menu items like Philly cheesesteaks, chicken fingers, and fried pickles. Combo meals, including a main dish, fries, and a soft drink, are available for just $7. Enjoy your meals under spacious tents out in the parking lot across from the rec center with seating for 150 guests.

- Family-Friendly Activities: Experience modern games suitable for all ages, navigate the new thrilling and scary Haunted Maze, only if you dare! Plus, try your luck at the expanded prize booth. The upgraded basket raffle features over 30 themed baskets, including the popular “Best Restaurants of the Finger Lakes” basket filled with local dining gift certificates, and a brand new La Z Boy Recliner from Lynch Furniture in Geneva.

- Convenient Access: Enjoy free parking and a complimentary shuttle service, sponsored by the Boys & Girls Club, ensuring easy transportation to and from the event.

Join the Celebration: Summerfest 2025 is a community-focused event celebrating the spirit of Geneva. Proceeds benefit Geneva Family YMCA, part of the Geneva community since 1886.
