

Bella Bella Community School Society Teacher Evaluation Procedure

Bella Bella Community School Society recognizes that individual teachers are a critical element in delivering sound educational programs. It is also the belief of the Bella Bella Community School Society that teacher evaluation will assist teachers in the realization of their full potential and result in the improvement of instruction.

Bella Bella Community School Society has adopted this Teacher Evaluation Policy in the belief that a comprehensive evaluation process will enhance professional growth and confidence and will mutually benefit both teachers and students.

Bella Bella Community School Society believes in an evaluation process that is fair and just. The evaluation of a teacher's performance shall be conducted in an atmosphere of trust, confidence, and support to the greatest extent possible.

The principal is responsible for the implementation of the Teacher Evaluation Policy.

The principal shall ensure that each teacher being evaluated is made aware of the evaluation process and criteria prior to the evaluation occurring.

The overall performance of the teacher, including classroom performance, shall be considered in the evaluation. The outcome of the evaluation will be considered in making decisions regarding the teacher's employment.

Guidelines

The teacher evaluation process is intended to be flexible to allow the evaluator to obtain the best information to assess the teacher's performance. However, the following guidelines provide a framework for teacher evaluation. These are intended to be guidelines only and can be modified as the evaluator thinks appropriate in any particular situation.

1. All teachers will participate in an evaluation of their performance that may be conducted.

1.1. Teachers may request, in writing, an evaluation of their performance if the request is made by February 1.

1.1.1. When a request is received from a teacher that an evaluation be conducted, the evaluation shall commence within one month of receipt of the request.

1.2. The principal may initiate an evaluation of any teacher's performance at any time.

1.2.1. A teacher who is to be evaluated will be notified by the Principal in writing prior to the evaluation occurring.

- 2. Each teacher who is to be evaluated shall be apprised of the process and criteria for the evaluation prior to the evaluation occurring.
 - 2.1. The evaluator shall hold an introductory meeting with the teacher to review the evaluation process and to ensure the teacher understands the expectations for their performance.*
 - 2.2. The evaluator and teacher shall endeavor to establish a climate of trust and respect.*

- 3. An evaluation of a teacher's performance may include the following:
 - 3.1. Classroom observations and post-conferences. Typically, at least three classroom observations should occur.*
 - 3.1.1. Whenever possible, periods chosen for observation should occur during typical learning situations (i.e., not immediately prior to winter or spring break, or immediately prior to the end of the school year).*
 - 3.1.2. The teacher should be advised of the first visitation date in advance and may be advised in advance of the remaining visits.*
 - 3.1.3. The evaluator should observe the teacher through a minimum of one complete lesson during each visit.*
 - 3.1.4. The evaluator should complete an observation report to be discussed with the teacher promptly at a post-conference. This report should summarize the observations made in respect of the evaluation criteria and may include suggestions for improvement.*
 - 3.2. The evaluator should complete a final report on the teacher's performance. The report should identify the following:*
 - 3.2.1. The teacher's assignment, professional experience and training;*
 - 3.2.2. All observation dates;*
 - 3.2.3. A summary of observed performance;*
 - 3.2.4. A summary of any other relevant information gathered during the evaluation process, including comments from parents or students, as well as the evaluator's observations, if any, as a result of working with the teacher; and*
 - 3.2.5. The evaluator's opinion of the teacher's overall performance with a statement indicating that the teacher's performance is either less than satisfactory or satisfactory.*
 - 3.2.6. This report shall be presented to the teacher as a draft at least 48 hours in advance of the completion of the final report, and the teacher and principal shall discuss the draft report, in the company of a third person if the teacher chooses.*
 - 3.2.7. A final report shall be signed by the teacher indicating both receipt and acknowledgement of placement on her/his personnel file. The teacher shall have the right to submit to the evaluator written commentary on the report, which shall be filed with the report in his or her personnel file.*

- 4. Supervisory support should be provided to a teacher whose performance is not meeting expectations or requires improvement.
 - 4.1. Where a teacher whose performance is not meeting expectations or requires improvement, the principal and teacher may meet to discuss a plan for improvement, which may include, for instance, supervisory visits (composed of pre-observation conferences followed by classroom observations and post-observation conferences), observation of other teachers or classrooms, mentorship, or in-service opportunities.*
 - 4.2. An unsatisfactory evaluation may result in the termination of the teacher's employment.*
