

Chicago – October 1, 2022 – Weekly airings of all-new, original miniseries “The Power of Womanhood” begin on the Total Living Network

The power of God’s handiwork is evidenced in His intricate creation of woman. She is mother, daughter, wife, executive caregiver, mentor, associate, leader, doctor, scholar, friend and God’s ordained partner for man. More opportunities are available to women than at any other time in society to make a difference, to be innovative, to accurately represent the Kingdom of God in so many realms and on unlimited platforms. Explore the power of womanhood as females created in the image of God. What does it look like? What are women called to in this current culture, what legacy should we leave behind, and what is our message to future generations of women? How do we champion the needs and challenges of marginalized women? Why is it important to send the elevator back down to those striving to go higher in career, ministry, skills, education? Join talented women in all facets of life as they take on tough issues influencing our culture today. Discover inward talent and the power you have as a God-created woman.

Tune in to these half-hour episodes of THE POWER OF WOMANHOOD on Tuesdays @ 10:00pm, Wednesdays @ 2:00pm and Fridays @ 8:30am (both CT & PT) beginning October 3, 2022/

Guest Shirley Rose, author, speaker, television producer and TV host talks about God-ordained assignments given to women that men were not called to do

Guest Kathleen Cooke, EVP of Cooke Media Group & The Influence Lab gives tools to move others forward in their calling

Guest Lauren Harris, inventor and COE of Neuromatics Oils, co-pastor of Eastgate Christian Fellowship and TV host shares useful information on healthy, productive and powerful living through her illness journey

Guest Sarah Bowling, co-lead pastor at Encounter Church, founder of Saving Moses and TV co-host speaks candidly about her book, Fearless On the Edge and her new venture, Living Genuine Love

Guest Mary Stutts has provided global leadership at high-profile Fortune 200 organizations and will share how to achieve upward mobility and help marginalized women and men break through the usual obstacles and succeed

Guest Shirley Rose, author, speaker, television producer and TV host will share candidly about the power of women and the importance of identifying the “Eve Factor” in our lives to avoid pitfalls and move toward the gifted women we were meant to be from the beginning of time

Guests Miriam Neff and Valerie Hogan, powerful mother-daughter team and radio co-hosts share how they're equipping thousands of women every day in the area of finance empowered through their personal journeys

Guest Dr. Marla Woodmansee, founder/president of Dr. Marla Ministries and Bible communicator, evangelist, author and TV host talks openly about the importance of women taking their place in culture and communities, and leading their families

Guest Dendra Keese, founder of The Happy Life, TV host, businesswoman, author, mother of 4 and grandmother of 8 shares how faith, strength, wisdom and knowledge of the power of God bring joy and fulfillment to a fascinating life, even when things get busy and messy

Guest Laurie Cardoza Moore, founder and president of Proclaiming Justice to the Nations and TV host talks about her 20-year journey to the very purpose God placed on her heart years earlier

Guest Brenda Kunneman, co-founder of One Voice Ministries and co-pastor of Lord of Hosts Church talks about how to help others discover their God-given talents

Guest Dorothy Yang talks about life as a woman in the social technology space and the adjustments along the way to stay current while juggling a family

Guest Helen Smallbone, mother of singer-songwriter Rebecca St. James shares how strength and determination saw she and her family through obstacles most of us will never see

Guest Diane Edwards and her husband raised a strong family of faith in the middle of a high-crime area of Chicago; Diane and her daughter Sibyl McGill & Sonja Robinson will talk about generational ties, their impact on marginalized women in the communities they serve and the hope that gives them strength every day

Guest Julia Jeffress Sadler, author of Pray Big Things will talk openly about becoming empowered to work through disappointment and to live in the NOW

TLN can be viewed on our basic Xfinity channel 138 in the Chicagoland area. More information can be found about these guests and how to watch at tln.com/womanhood.

Total Living Network programming focuses on the areas of SPIRIT, MIND and BODY. TLN has produced original programming over its forty-plus years of operation, receiving numerous Midwest Emmy and National Religious Broadcasting awards. TLN is Total Living for Total Life.

Contact: Shirley Hill

Tel: (630) 801-3646

Email: shill@tln.com

Websites: tln.com