

Edward J. Domozik Jr.

December 21, 2008

Edward J. Domozik Jr., 76, a resident of Shenandoah Manor Nursing Home, formerly of Frackville, died Sunday evening at the center.

Born in Frackville, he was a son of the late Edward and Verna Barowsky Domozik.

He was a graduate of West Mahanoy Township High School.

He was an Air Force veteran, having served during the Korean War.

He was a meat cutter for the former Acme Markets, Pottsville, and previously worked at the New York Bakery and the former Norris's Store, Frackville.

He was a member of Annunciation BVM Catholic Church, Frackville, and the UFCW Union Local 72, Kingston.

He was also an avid hunter and fisherman.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a sister,

Gloria R. Heiser.

He is survived by a daughter, Mary Ann Mittnight, Tulsa, Okla.; a son, Edward Domozik, Port Huron, Mich.; his former wife, Mary Barnes Domozik, Frackville; a sister, Dorothy Bagienski, Manville, N.J.; six grandchildren, Jason, currently serving in the Army in Iraq, Kyle, a Marine, Brittni, BriAnne, Jessica and Julie; a great-grandson, Isaiah; his niece and godchild, Gloria Ann Heiser; nieces, Dorothea, Sophia and Veronica; and a great-nephew, William Walsh.

Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 10:30 a.m. Monday at Annunciation BVM Catholic Church, Frackville, with the Rev. Edward Essig officiating. Relatives and friends are invited to call from 9:30 a.m. until the time of the Mass on Monday. Interment will be private and at the convenience of the family in Annunciation Parish Cemetery, Englewood, Butler Township.