

John J. Kowalick

Died: Nov 9, 2020

John J. Kowalick, 86, of Frackville, passed away Monday morning at his residence with his family by his side.

Born in Lost Creek, July 17, 1934, he was a son of the late John and Anna Olanich Kowalick.

He attended West Mahanoy Township High School.

He was a US Navy seabee's veteran serving under President Eisenhower.

John last worked as a cylinder handler for Air Products, Hometown; he previously worked as a cutter at the former PA Bedding Plant, Frackville.

He was a member of St. Joseph the Worker Parish and the American Legion Post #398, both of Frackville.

John liked golfing, fishing, bowling, hunting and dancing; he also liked vacations at the beach; he especially enjoyed being with grandchildren and family.

In addition to his parents he was preceded in death by his daughter Pamela, sister; Catherine Weber and step-son Brian Yankiewicz.

John is survived by the love of his life; Peggy Zelonis Kowalick, Frackville; step-daughter; Lisa and husband William H. Dillman, III, Orwigsburg; step-son; Derek Yankiewicz and significant other Dr. Stacey Schott, Baltimore, MD; 4 grandchildren; daughter; Karen Kowalick: two brothers; Thomas and Cyril Kowalick; sisters; Delores Brynarsky; Bernice Siptroth, Mary Pancheri and Pauline Onuschak; nieces and nephews.

A Memorial Mass of Christian Burial for immediate family will be held in Annunciation BVM Catholic Church, Frackville at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, following CDC guidelines.

Interment with military honors will be in Annunciation Cemetery, Englewood/Frackville.