

Peter Prock

Peter "Pete" Prock, 89, of 731 W. Pine St., Englewood, Frackville, died shortly after arrival Tuesday at Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center.

Born in Frackville, he was a son of the late Michael and Mary Myhalic Prock.

He had been employed as a truck driver/mechanic at the former Frackville Block Plant and was then employed as a truck driver for the former N&J Trucking Company, Frackville, until his retirement in 1970.

He was an Army veteran of World War II, having served in both Africa and India.

He was a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church, Frackville, and was a life member of Friendship Fire Company, Englewood.

He was preceded in death by his wife, the former Marie Berg, in 1967; six brothers, Metro, John, Michael, Steven, Alex and Andrew Prock; four sisters, Ann Mykolayko, Eva Joseph, Julia Matsell and Mary Ploxa.

Surviving are two sons, Francis and Joseph, both of Englewood, Frackville; two brothers, Adam Prock, Saint Clair, and Joseph Prock, Frackville; a sister, Helen Staconis, Mahanoy City; nieces and nephews.

Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 11 a.m. Friday in St. Joseph Church with the Rev. David W. Karns, pastor, as the celebrant. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Friday from Thomas M. Sullivan Funeral Home, Frackville. Friends may call from 9:30 a.m. until the time of services Friday at the funeral home.

Interment will be in the parish cemetery, Englewood.