

Arthur G. Stickler

Arthur G. "Uncle Art" Stickler, 72, of Frackville, died Monday night at Pottsville Hospital.

Born in Mabel, he was a son of the late Arthur G. and Anna Maykish Stickler.

He was a veteran of the Korean War and served for 20 years in the Army Reserves.

He was a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church, Frackville, and life member of Frackville Elks Lodge No. 1533. He was employed as a supply clerk at Fort Indiantown Gap, Annville, until his retirement in 1979.

He was preceded in death by five brothers, Joseph, John, William, Peter and Jerome Sankus; three sisters, Margaret Wagner, Rita Sara and Bella Hopkins.

Surviving are his wife, the former Jeanette Robbins, with whom he would have celebrated 52 years of marriage on Nov. 1; two daughters, Janice and her husband, Albert Walentis, Reading, and Cindi and her husband, Don "Mazz" Mazzagatti, Frackville; a sister, Dorothy Sankus, Frackville; a grandson, Brandon Mazzagatti; a great-granddaughter, Riley Mazzagatti; several nieces and nephews.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend a Mass of Christian Burial at 11 a.m. Friday in St. Joseph's Catholic Church. The Rev. David W. Karns, pastor, will be the celebrant. Friends may call from 6 to 9 p.m. Thursday at Thomas M. Sullivan Funeral Home, Frackville. Interment will be in the parish cemetery, Englewood, Frackville.
