

Jeannette C. Stickler

June 27, 2012

Jeannette C. Stickler, 75, of Frackville, died Wednesday evening at Lehigh Valley Hospital Cedar Crest.

Born in Frackville, she was a daughter of the late William and Julia Stank Robbins.

She worked for several years for the Social Security Administration and later was employed as a bookkeeper for Kmart until her retirement.

She was a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church, Frackville.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Arthur G. "Art" Stickler, in 2005, and two brothers, James and Gerald Robbins.

Jeannette was famous for both her pierogies and the crabcakes made by "MOM" at Mazz's Cafe.

Through her passing, Jeannette has given the "gift of sight" as an organ donor.

Jeannette is survived by her daughters, Janice, wife of Albert Walentis, Reading, and Cindi, wife of Don "Mazz" Mazzagatti, Frackville; her grandson, Brandon Mazzagatti; her great-granddaughter, Riley Mazzagatti; her sister, Kathleen Rafferty, Frackville; several nieces and nephews; and also by her beloved pet and constant companion, Jenny.

Relatives and friends are invited to her Mass of Christian Burial at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at St. Joseph Catholic Church, Frackville, with the Rev. Robert Finlan, pastor, as the celebrant.

Interment will be in the parish cemetery, Englewood, Frackville.

Friends may call at the Thomas M. Sullivan Funeral Home, Frackville, from 6 to 8 p.m. Monday with scripture service at 7:45 p.m. Friends may also call the church from 10 a.m. Tuesday until time of Mass. In lieu of flowers, the family requests contributions in Jeannette's name be made to the Hillside SPCA, Pottsville, PA 17901.
