

Anne T. Tamulonis

Anne T. Tamulonis, Frackville, died unexpectedly Friday at her residence.

Born in Frackville, she was a daughter of the late Thomas and Mary O'Donnell Carroll.

She was a graduate of the former Frackville High School and received a degree as a lab technician from St. Luke's Hospital, Philadelphia.

Until her retirement, she had been employed as a phlebotomist for Pottsville Hospital and Warne Clinic.

She was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Frackville, Frackville Historical Society, and was very involved in the Frackville Free Public Library.

An avid sports fan, she loved following her favorite teams, Duke University, Notre Dame and the New York Mets.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Joseph E. Tamulonis, on Aug. 9, 1982; two sisters, Mary Carroll, in 1997, and Joan Carroll, in 2004.

She is survived by her daughter, Diane C., wife of Charles M. Naspinski, Frackville; granddaughter, Jennifer A. Naspinski, Sellersville; a grandson, Eric M. Naspinski, West Chester.

She was the last member of her immediate family.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday from Thomas M. Sullivan Funeral Home, Frackville. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 11 a.m. Wednesday in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Frackville, with the Rev. David W. Karns, pastor, as celebrant.

Interment will be in the parish cemetery, Englewood, Frackville.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Family prefers contributions to the memorial fund of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Frackville, or the Hillside SPCA, Pottsville.
