TERMS

Please initial after all of the following terms stating your agreement to each.**

a. Parties obligations under this Agreement are subject to force majeure. Force majeure includes but is not limited to: acts of God, war, natural disaster, government regulations, strikes, walkouts or other labor disturbance, order of any government agency, court or regulatory body having jurisdiction, shortages, blockade, embargo, riot, civil disorder, transportation interruption, terrorism, unavailability of the venue selected as site for the event, and other such conditions beyond the reasonable control of the parties herein, making it legally inadvisable, illegal, impracticable, or impossible to perform the obligations under this Agreement. _____

b. In the event that JH is unable to perform during the entire agreed upon time period, either due to travel or host venue equipment failure, compensation is limited to providing The Client with: (1) time equal to the time lacking or (2) a refund of one-hundred dollars per hour that JH did not perform. Except for situations where the performance is incomplete due to the fault of JH, The Client is expected to pay the total rate for the agreed upon start time to the agreed upon stop time prior to the event. _____

c. To prevent liability from accidental injury to any individual attending this event, JH reserves the right to deny any guest access to recordings or equipment owned, leased, or being used exclusively by JH. In the event that JH feels a hazardous situation arising, it will be the responsibility of The Client, upon notification, to take action and remedy the situation. If no action is taken, JH may, in extreme instances, delay the performance. As a last resort if bodily harm seems imminent, JH will shut down and cancel the
