

Beyond The Brush/Featured Artist

Are you a passionate artist seeking to showcase your work to a broader audience? Step into the spotlight and join our vibrant community of creatives, where your art will be celebrated by collectors, art lovers, and gallery enthusiasts. Becoming a featured artist on SWFL Art Canvas is more than just an opportunity to display your work — it's an invitation to tell your story, connect with art lovers worldwide, and expand your influence in the art world.

Why Become a Featured Artist?

As a featured artist, you'll have your own personalized gallery on our site, where visitors can experience your art in a captivating and dynamic space. Our platform is designed to highlight your work, offering:

- Exclusive Exposure: Your artwork will be prominently displayed alongside curated collections, featured in online galleries, and shared with our global audience of art collectors and aficionados.
- Artist Interviews: Get personal with your audience through in-depth artist interviews, where you can share your creative process, inspiration, and the stories behind your work.
- Art Events: Be a part of our art events calendar, from online exhibitions to gallery showcases and live auctions. You'll have the chance to promote your work and engage with fellow artists, art enthusiasts, and potential buyers.
- Sell Your Art: Our online gallery provides a seamless platform for you to sell your pieces to collectors both locally and internationally, ensuring your creations find a home with those who truly appreciate them.

What We're Looking For

We celebrate diverse forms of art, from painters to sculptors, photographers to mixed-media artists, and everything in between. We're on the lookout for artists who:

- Innovate: Push the boundaries of creativity and challenge traditional norms.
- Inspire: Use art as a medium to tell powerful stories and spark conversations.
- Engage: Are passionate about connecting with a broader community and sharing their artistic journey.
