Following is information about The Jesse Quinn Family Bible and the recently uncovered Quinn Family Cemetery on Beautancus Road (CR 1306) near Mt. Olive, NC and the Original Rooty Bottom Church. Additionally, Jesse Quinn's second wife and my relation is Susan Jernigan and she is located also on Beautancus Road (CR 1306) 0.1 miles east of the Junction of Fonville Road (SR 1361) on the right hand side of the road in a grazing pasture for livestock.

On Beautancus Road 0.1 miles east off the Junction of Fonville Road SR 1361 on the right side of road in a field. May be hard to locate as it is grazing land for livestock.

The actual copies of the bible pages are listed at the bottom of the page.
It should be noted that the original front cover and miscellaneous pages were missing when we reviewed the bible first in April of 2009. The back cover was present, but was not attached to the rebound edition. In the rebound Bible the following Bible pages were also not present:

- Roughly Parts Of Hebrews
- All Of James
- All Of 1 Peter
- All Of 2 Peter
- All Of 1 John
- All Of 2 John
- All Of 3 John
- All Of Jude
- All Of Revelation

Inside the bible there were 4 pages that bore hand written information. These pages were after the weights and measures pages that separated the Old Testament from the New Testament. These pages were titled; Marriages, Births, Births and Deaths but I do not believe them complete, as there are indications that similar section pages existed at one time, or another.
