The Louisiana Catahoula Leopard Dog is the only breed of dog which historically originated in the State of Louisiana. On July 9, 1979, then Gov. Edwin Edwards signed a Bill into Law which was passed by the Louisiana Legislature making The Louisiana Catahoula Leopard Dog, The Official State Dog of Louisiana.

The Catahoula Leopard Dog is a medium-large, short-coated dog, known for its many varied coat and eye colors and patterns. The word Catahoula is of Choctaw origin and is translated to mean "sacred lake."

The breed requires firm guidance and early socialization, as they can be independent, territorial, and protective. For the same reasons, they do not allow mistreatment and will assert themselves in self-defense. Once they know their place in the family unit, they are affectionate, loyal, and gentle. Also called the Catahoula Hog Dog, they are used as stock dogs, bay dogs, tree dogs, watchdogs, guard dogs, and of course as loyal companions.

Owners of dogs of this breed must socialize the dogs as puppies to turn them into appropriate companions. THIS BREED HAS A SINGLE SHORT COAT AND CANNOT TOLERATE COLD WEATHER. THESE DOGS LOVE "THEIR PEOPLE" AND DO NOT TOLERATE BEING LEFT ALONE FOR LONG PERIODS OF TIME. IF LEFT ALONE WITHOUT PROPER CRATE TRAINING, THEY MAY BARK CONSTANTLY AND EASILY DESTROY THINGS (INCLUDING EATING THROUGH WALLS, DOG HOUSES, AND FURNITURE). They can easily jump & climb 4 + feet, clearing fences. They are extremely loyal and will defend their people and property, especially against predators.
