

Don't Lose Your Wonder

A scenic landscape featuring a winding road through a dense forest, a calm lake, and distant mountains under a soft sky.

When was the last time something genuinely left you in awe?

A scenic landscape featuring a calm lake nestled between dark, forested mountains. In the foreground, a dense green forest covers a hillside, with a winding road visible. The sky is a soft, hazy blue, suggesting dawn or dusk. The text is overlaid in a large, white, serif font.

“When I look at the night sky and see the work of your fingers—
the moon and the stars you set in place—

4 what are mere mortals that you should think about them,
human beings that you should care
for them?”

A scenic landscape featuring a turquoise lake, dense green forests, and mountains under a soft sky. The text is overlaid on the image.

Familiarity is the Enemy of Wonder

Nothing becomes ordinary faster than something we experience every day

Wonder Always Leads to Worship

The more clearly we see God, the more naturally we worship.

The Enemy Wants You Familiar, Not Fascinated

The enemy doesn't have to destroy your faith if he can make it ordinary.

A scenic landscape featuring a turquoise lake, dense green forests, and distant mountains under a soft sky. The foreground is dominated by a lush, green forest of evergreen trees. A winding road is visible through the trees on the right side. In the middle ground, a large, calm lake with a vibrant turquoise hue stretches across the frame. The background consists of rolling mountains and hills, some with patches of snow or light-colored rock, under a pale, hazy sky.

Recovering Our Wonder

The closer we draw to Jesus, the greater our awe becomes.

Never let what is sacred become merely familiar.

Turn your eyes upon Jesus.
