

Some Projects to Inspire Others

Projects completed and ready to share (see website/Projects for photographs):

- o Advertisements (designs to find Rosies)
- o Allied Nations' learning and teaching through events, displays, video, projects to thank Rosies
- o Art by artists, children
- o Banners (one designed by Allied Nation, all signed by Rosies)
- o Bell ringing from Europe across the US with Rosies
- o Bluebird nest box placement with Rosies and Bluebird experts (see meaning of bluebirds)
- o Books, Ours and those by many others
- o Bridges named "Rosie the Riveter" (two interstates in WV)
- o Building named, "Rosie the Riveter Complex"
- o Dance Routines by various groups
- o Displays (one travelling, with faceted glass art by Rosies and teens)
- o Dogwood trees, planted in several states and in Holland (see meaning to Rosies)
- o Events orchestrated by "Thanks!" or others to honor living Rosies and show unity
- o Film, Documentary, "We Pull Together: Rosie the Riveters Then and Now" (31 Rosies)
- o Grave marker (design by Bill Bennett)
- o Interviews of more than 100 Rosies (audio and video, some in writing)
- o Lesson Plans for teachers and parents
- o Mannequin (dressed by Rosies and takes to schools, events)
- o Marbles for Remembering (for deploying veterans and others leaving loved ones)
- o Monuments in parks, at graves (one designed by veteran, one with quote from veteran)
- o Music (original songs, one in film, one performed for Rosies, words for lyrics)
- o Park (Rosies planned and supervised construction)
- o Posters for reproduction and display
- o Photographs (Rosies as young women, events, bell ringing)
- o Poetry (by Rosies and about Rosies)
- o Quilts designed by Rosies
- o Scrap books with Rosies that tell about their lives

- o Signs to name streets, rooms, etc.
- o Victory Gardens (community gardens that tell of growing food on the home front)
- o Videos and documentary film
- o Writing (books, short stories, scrips for animated films)
- o Youth and young adults working with Rosies via youth groups, schools, individuals