

Manufacturing Engineer

Accessories Unlimited LLC Detroit Lakes, MN, USA

Compensation

$ to $$$ Hourly

Benefits Offered

401K, Life, Medical

Employment Full-Time

Under the direction of the Engineering Manager, you will be responsible for the following:

- Design new products and develop improvements for current products.
- Create and maintain BOMs and drawings for new and existing products.
- Create manufacturing drawings and work instructions.
- Keeping engineering documentation up to date and organized
- Investigating production problems
- Design fixtures for manufacturing and assembly processes.
- Making improvements to current operations to enhance efficiency.
- Production support
- Technical support to customers and suppliers
- New equipment implementations
- Product testing and documentation
- Project management
- Organize task list and establish timelines.
- Able to create technical documentation or presentations internally and for customers.
- Executes ECN's with understanding of how the requested changes affects the organization and customer.

Required:

- 5+ years' experience in a Manufacturing/Mechanical engineering role.
- Proficient using SolidWorks.
- Proficient with computers and Microsoft products.
- Understands common manufacturing processes.
- Able to communicate effectively both written and verbally.

Preferred:

- 4 year degree in related Engineering.
- SolidWorks trained.

About Accessories Unlimited LLC:

Accessories Unlimited LLC was founded in 2006 by Mark Rasmussen and Travis Ballard on the dream of growing a business that would supply dealers all over the United States with quality American made products. In addition to a product line they could stand behind they also wanted to provide the area they grew up in with industry growth and manufacturing employment opportunities.

Company website: <https://a-u-llc.com/>

Company address: 1457 Eagle Street, Detroit Lakes, MN 56501