Speaker Bio:

Renee has been a Speaker for 15+ years, raising millions of dollars for numerous non-profit organizations, local and national. Along her journey, many executives and leaders would ask her how she enjoys speaking so much and inquire about how to consistently appear more authentic. Along her journey, Renee turned her lifelong love for speaking to coaching and training individuals, teams and organizations to improve their leadership skills, by discovering, developing and amplifying their voice, the most important instrument we were given. Renee uses a unique and customized interactive approach to help her audience's create authentic and engaging connections with their audiences, big or small. By using science-backed techniques including Improvisation, coupled with specific voice techniques and her own story overcoming adversity in the workplace, Renee is passionate about improving Communications in the workplace by getting her clients to walk through the discomfort of speaking, while reaching the next level in their success journey - personally or professionally.

Renee is a Toastmaster through Toastmasters International and a graduate of Dale Carnegie Leadership program. Renee is a speaker for the United Way of Broward County, has been a Speaker for Eagle's Haven in Coral Springs, FL, appears on Virtual Stages and runs a private Communications Coaching practice as a Transformative Communications Coach, supporting individuals and leaders in all industries in person and via Zoom. Renee, an educator by heart, also teaches Improvisation classes at her local community center to give back to her community.
