4 Positive Paws Commitment

My commitment to you is to provide you with positive, fun and creative training ideas that you will be able to use throughout your dog's life. An obedient dog does things because he wants to please his kind, confident, consistent leader. We never want our dog to be afraid of us—fear does not establish obedience—confidence does. I will show you ways to always set your dog up to succeed! I want you to have fun being with your dog and I want your dog to have fun being with you! My goal is to help you stay Motivated so that you will always truly enjoy your loving dog!
