

Stockton Rowing Club – Junior Athlete Code of Conduct

Stockton Rowing Club expects a high standard of behavior from our athletes. All rowers, coaches and coxswains will be treated with respect. The following guidelines set out the minimum expectations of an athlete participating in any Stockton Rowing Club activity.

1. I will treat my teammates, coaches, opponents and officials in the same manner that I would like to be treated.
2. I will demonstrate good sportsmanship by competing fairly, setting the example, rising above poor behavior and having fun – remembering that the way in which I conduct myself has a long lasting effect on everyone around me.
3. I will use appropriate language and I will encourage and support my teammates and opponents, not criticize them. I will show respect in my actions and my words to all people regardless of culture, gender, race, or socioeconomic status. I will support my team in victory and defeat.
4. I understand and agree to adhere to a zero-tolerance policy regarding the use of controlled substances. This includes but is not limited to alcohol, tobacco, vaping/e-cigarettes, and any illegal drugs.
5. I will respect Stockton Rowing Clubs property and equipment, as well as the property and equipment of others. I will refrain from activities that could damage any SRC property of equipment.
6. I will accept and follow the instruction of my coaches.
7. I understand that conduct (including on social media) which results in harm, potential for harm, or the imminent threat of harm (including bullying, cyber bullying, hazing, harassment, emotional misconduct, and physical misconduct) will not be tolerated and will be grounds for immediate dismissal as well as reported to the appropriate authorities.
8. I understand that I am expected to tell the truth at all times when I am involved in SRC activities. I understand that if it is determined that a violation occurred and I was associated with that activity, I will also be considered to have violated the rules.

Some code violations can be resolved through good communication and problem solving. In the event of a more serious violation, depending on severity and the nature of such violation, athletes may be suspended temporarily or permanently removed from the rowing program. Before such action would be taken, a conference would be held with the athlete, coach(es), and parent chaperones as applicable as it pertains to the incident. The athlete's parents will also be consulted as soon as practicable and as feasible under the circumstances. After consultation, enforcement and final authority of such enforcement rests with the Board of Directors. Whether the incident was a first violation or whether the individual has multiple violations will be taken into account when administering consequences.

I have read and understand what is expected of me as a youth member of the Stockton Rowing Club, and I will abide by the Athlete Code of Conduct.
