UNITED WE SERVE

A NOTE FROM THE CEO

Dear Friend,

Welcome to the Third Annual CHEP Casino Night! We are grateful for your support and that you've chosen to spend your night with us.

To our sponsors, planning committee, partners, and every person who stands with the CHEP mission, thank you. Events like this are not simply a night out; they are a launchpad for real change, real housing, real education, and real second chances. You make that possible.

CHEP has always operated with a simple belief: if someone knocks, we answer, and we do everything in our power to ensure that answer leads to stability, dignity, and hope. We maximize resources, stretch every dollar, and focus on outcomes that matter. This work succeeds because people like you refuse to look away.

So relax, connect, celebrate, and then lean in. Laugh, play your heart out, and invest in the lives that need it most. Long after tonight ends, your generosity will keep working.

Thank you for being here tonight, the last 35 years, for believing in this mission, and for proving that community is not just an idea, it is action.

With deepest respect & gratitude,

Jack Berkeridge

Jack Berkeridge, CEO

THE CHEP MISSION

PATRIOT MISSION

We EMPOWER unhoused Veterans, and those about to be unhoused, by providing them with housing and by maximizing access to supportive services so they may create positive and sustainable change in their lives and in their communities.

PEOPLE MISSION

We EMPOWER unhoused persons, and those about to be unhoused, by providing them with housing and needed resources. We support individuals, families, agencies, causes, and sister non-profits. We strive to drive action, and present a united front against the root causes.

EDUCATION MISSION

We EMPOWER professionals through CHEP Education by providing best-in-class educational seminars and programs that meet continuing education requirements. We also deliver conference management and overall consulting services. Our goal is to arm professionals with the tools needed to serve the veteran and non-veteran communities.
