

From extended vinyl-only sets to cinematic concept albums, storytelling is at the heart of everything.

EDICTUM

DJ · Producer · Musical Storyteller

Edictum is a Vienna-based vinyl DJ and producer active since 2002, known for melodic, cinematic and groove-driven electronic music. His sets blend Progressive House, Synthwave, club-focused energy and genre-crossing storytelling into carefully shaped arcs that adapt to the room, crowd and moment. With nearly 25 years of DJ experience, gigs at venues such as Flex, Arena, Loft and Kramladen, over 200 releases and millions of streams, Edictum brings depth, precision and a distinctive musical identity to the booth.

PRODUCER | Beyond the Dancefloor

From club-focused Progressive House to immersive science-fiction Synthwave soundscapes, every release is built around a musical idea worth exploring.

- 200+ released tracks across 15+ international labels including Cinematique, New Retro Wave, Leisure Music and Movement (forthcoming)
- 10+ vinyl albums, including elaborate narrative-driven concept works
- Millions of streams, 30,000+ monthly Spotify listeners and multiple editorial placements
- 30+ collaborations with international artists and vocalists
- Full creative control: Composition, sound design, mixing and mastering, including vinyl mastering
- Game music and film sync

DJ | The Art of the Journey

Rooted in vinyl and digging culture, dedicated to the art of musical storytelling. Deep, Melodic and Progressive House, hypnotic grooves, seamless transitions and evolving emotional arcs

- 24+ years behind the decks, 100% vinyl.
- 1,000+ performances, including club residencies and extended all-night sets
- ~50 gigs in 2026, maintaining an active presence in Vienna's electronic music scene
- 10,000-record collection spanning four decades of electronic music
- Versatile across the night: Opening, peak-time, closing and extended sets, all-nighters
- Scene builder: A main driving force behind bootstrapping a Vienna Progressive House community

