José Rizo & David Benoit!

Your KJAZZ Hosts

Meet Your Hosts

José Rizo & David Benoit!

José Rizo was born in Guadalajara, Mexico and raised in Oxnard, California. He played trumpet in high school, but it was not until he was a student at U.C. Santa Barbara that he developed his passion for jazz. In the late 70s, José was the founder of “Radio Chicano”, a student and community broadcasting organization based on the Santa Barbara campus at KCSB, where he served as program director for two years. Rizo began hosting “Jazz on the Latin Side” on KILON (now KJazz) in early 1990. He was intricately involved on KILON’s “Latin Jazz Club Caravans” and served as a member of the Grammy’s Screening committee for Latin Jazz. He has been the artistic director of the Luckman Fine Arts Latin Jazz Concert Series and involved in the “Central Avenue Jazz Festival” since its inception.

Over the last quarter century, composer and pianist David Benoit has been a passionate musical innovator committed to the exploration of many different art forms on the American landscape. A five-time GRAMMY nominee for his seminal contributions to the genre of contemporary jazz, Benoit has also embarked on a multi-faceted journey into the classical music world. This has led to guest pianist and conductor spots with numerous top orchestras, four performances at Carnegie Hall (including one with Leonard Bernstein at the podium), a performance on the steps of the Capitol Building with the National Symphony for the annual PBS July 4th event, and the creation of his new orchestral work, Dolores Del Carmen, and chamber composition, Music for Two Trios.

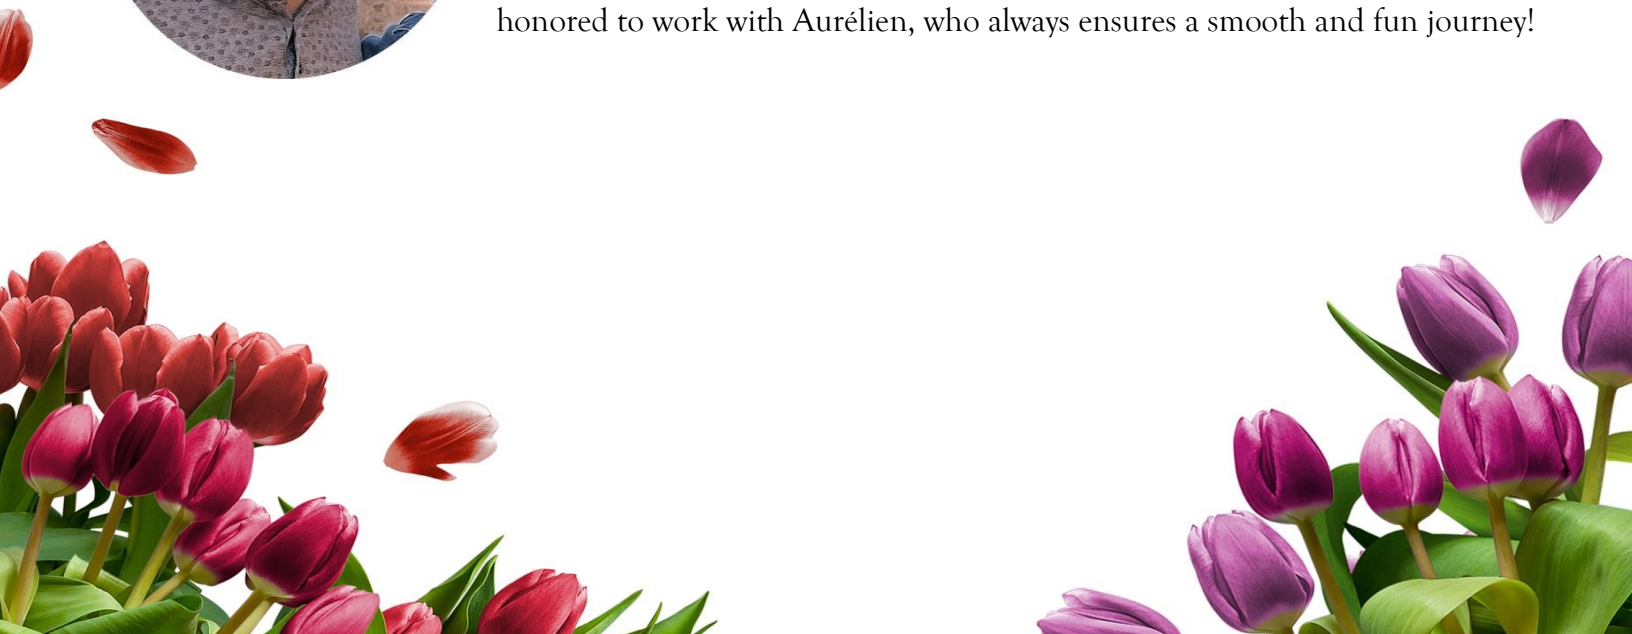

Alexander Beets: Described as “one of the rare tenor heroes of his time,” Alexander’s nickname “The Hurricane” comes from his explosive and expressive playing. As a jazz saxophone player, he has given over 2000 concerts around the world. Alexander has been the director of the Amersfoort Jazz Festival for 21 years. This festival has eight stages spread across the old city of Amersfoort, mainly on the historic squares. It is a large free three-day event, and it attracts over 100,000 visitors every year. We are thrilled that Alexander is available for the journey and he looks forward to playing in the intimate setting of our floating jazz festival.

Matthew Brumley, Founder, Earthbound Expeditions: Matthew has been leading and creating specialized, educational adventures for public radio stations worldwide for 25 years. After attending universities in the USA, Copenhagen and Moscow, Russia, he went on to attend the graduate program at the London School of Economics. Matthew was the senior guide on the Orient Express & Trans-Siberian Rail. He has worked in Europe, Africa, South America, Asia, New Zealand and North America and has lived in Copenhagen, Paris, London, Tel Aviv and San Jose, Costa Rica. Matthew lives with his wife and fellow Earthbound founder, Danna Brumley on Bainbridge Island, WA.

Aurélien Clavero is one of Earthbound Expeditions’ finest European based guides. And, he is an outstanding bass player! His passion for music, Culture, history, food and wine is contagious for all who have had the pleasure of travelling with him. Aurélien is fluent in English, Spanish (his mother is from Nicaragua), and French (his father is from France). He has guided tailor-made expeditions for over 20 years and continues to love sharing his knowledge with all. Aurélien lives in Arles, France with his wife and two children.
