

Island Hopping by First-Class Yacht August 31 – September 12, 2022

“Those who seek paradise on earth should come and see Dubrovnik.”
George Bernard Shaw

Join us on a 13-day custom, small-group adventure to Slovenia and Croatia! Your journey begins in gorgeous Lake Bled, then to the Dalmatian coast and the ancient Roman city of Split, from where we board our first-class yacht, the MV Black Swan! With our small group, we will sail through the sunny Dalmatian Islands and spend a full day discovering the walled city of Dubrovnik. Open-air markets, ancient seaside towns, Roman ruins, the Julian Alps, Venetian palaces, wine tastings and garden visits await your arrival. Space is limited on this deluxe, small-yacht expedition.

Spend a Day Exploring Lake Bled, Slovenia

YOUR ADVENTURE BEGINS ...

Day 0: Tuesday, August 30 - Depart home city for quaint Slovenia!

Remember, you will need to depart the US for Slovenia no later than today.

Day 1: Wednesday, August 31 - Arrive in Ljubljana, Slovenia

Welcome to the quaint and mountainous country of Slovenia! After flying into Ljubljana, plan to meet your guide and fellow travelers in Lake Bled, a 30-minute taxi ride northwest of the airport. Enjoy a welcome feast together this evening. Sleep near Lake Bled (D)

Day 2: Thursday, September 1 - Villages, Castles and Stunning Mountain Vistas

Breathe the sub-Alpine air and luxuriate in the gorgeous surroundings! You're at the foot of the towering Julian Alps. Lake Bled offers us stunning scenery and a perfect location to explore the mountains, lakes and meadows of this magnificent region. After a morning orientation, it's time to explore! Options today include a lake cruise, a mountain hike, a stroll along the shores of Lake Bled, or an excursion to the well-preserved ruins of the 11th century castle of Bled. Some of you may wish to relax and visit the nearby thermal springs. Sleep near Lake Bled (B, L)

Day 3: Friday, September 2 - South to Opatija via the Caves of Postojna

Welcome to Postojna, the most captivating cave system in the world and largest show cave in Europe! While touring the 17-mile long cave system, you'll feel the magic of the underground world and experience a one-of-a-kind ride on an underground train. Afterwards, we continue south to the elegant seaside town of Opatija. Before World War I, this was Austria-Hungary's most fashionable seaside resort and the place to "see and be seen" for the czars of Russia and luminaries such as Isadora Duncan and Gustav Mahler. The grand residences of the wealthy and noble are now elegant hotels that offer the grandeur and sophistication of a bygone age. The regal waterfront promenade stretches nearly nine miles.

Sleep in Opatija (B, D)

Day 4: Saturday, September 3 - South to the Roman city of Split

Our expedition continues south to Split. As a UNESCO World Heritage site, Split has an abundance of Roman architecture including the magnificent Diocletian Palace, once inhabited by the Roman emperor. Enjoy a guided tour of the city. Afterwards, we board our private yacht, the MV Black Swan, for a welcome drink followed by dinner.

Sleep on board near Split (B, D)

Day 5: Sunday, September 4 - Split to Korcula, Home of Marco Polo

This morning, we depart Split and continue our cruise towards the Island of Korcula, best known as the birthplace of Marco Polo. We'll stop for lunch in one of the secluded bays en route to Korcula. Upon arrival, we'll have a guided walking tour of this enchanting town with fortified walls and unique herringbone-patterned streets. Korcula also has an abundance of restaurants where you can opt for a gourmet or casual dinner experience. There are many bars and clubs for those looking for evening entertainment. Sleep on board near Korcula (B, L)

Day 6: Monday, September 5- Korcula to Mljet to Dubrovnik

Today, we cruise farther south to the island of Mljet. We'll visit the salt lakes in Mljet National Park, take a boat ride to St Mary Isle, and visit an ancient Benedictine monastery and a 12th century church. Here you can also rent kayaks, bicycles, scooters or convertible cars to roam around the national park on your own. Following lunch aboard, we'll depart for Dubrovnik. A buffet dinner is served on deck as the captain takes us for an evening cruise alongside the old city walls before docking in Dubrovnik. Enjoy an evening stroll or a pint at a local pub in this beautiful city. Sleep on board near Dubrovnik (B, L, D)

Day 7: Tuesday, September 6 - The Walled City of Dubrovnik

This morning we'll have a guided walk of the old town of Dubrovnik including a cable car ride to Srđ Mountain for scenic views of the walls and Elaphiti Islands. Don't forget to bring your camera! The afternoon is at your leisure. Your guide can recommend idyllic spots for lunch and dinner and, for those of you with more enthusiasm, we highly recommend walking the famous walls. This 1.2-mile long walk is actually on top of the surrounding city walls and provides a unique perspective to the city. The "Stradun" is Dubrovnik's most famous pedestrian street and a great place to find charming stores and convivial pubs.

Sleep on board near Dubrovnik (B)

Day 8: Wednesday, September 7 - Dubrovnik to Peljesac Peninsula

Our destination today is the Peljesac Peninsula, best known for its excellent wine. We'll go inland to explore the rural areas, visit a local farm, and enjoy an all-inclusive dinner with traditional Croatian dishes made from local produce. Sleep on board near the Peljesac peninsula (B, L, D)

Day 9: Thursday, September 8 - Peljesac Peninsula to Hvar

Today, we'll enjoy lunch on the small island of Scedro and a swim in the Pakleni Islands as we sail up to Hvar. The longest island in the Adriatic, Hvar is renowned for its sunny weather, lavish lavender fields and breathtaking beauty. The island is also home to many historical landmarks, including a Renaissance cathedral with its original tower and the oldest community theatre in Europe, founded in 1612. Those wanting to stretch their legs can hike up to the town fort overlooking the harbor for lovely scenic views of the ship and the Pakleni Islands. In the evening, Hvar offers an abundance of entertainment - many restaurants, bars and cafés are open long into the night. Sleep on board near Hvar (B, L)

Spend a day exploring Korcula, birthplace of Marco Polo!

The Venetian Island of Hvar!

Day 10: Friday, September 9 - Hvar to Bol

Our final stop is the island of Brac and the picturesque town of Bol. Walk along the promenade or swim at one of the most famous beaches in Dalmatia, Zlatni Rat. Translated to "the Golden Horn," this beach is known for its distinct gravel promontory and stunningly clear water. Bol is a typical fishermen's town turned into a popular tourist destination. After lunch on board, enjoy a wine tasting in the facilities of the oldest Dalmatia wine cooperative, dating from 1903, followed by the Captain's farewell dinner on board. Sleep on board near Bol (B, L, D)

Day 11: Saturday, September 10 - North to Zagreb via Plitvice National Park

We disembark the MV Black Swan after breakfast today. Our drive across Croatia will take us to the world-renowned waterfall park of Plitvice. Explore the park by foot before journeying on to Zagreb. Sleep in Zagreb (B)

Day 12: Sunday, September 11 - Explore Lively Zagreb

This morning, set off on a walking tour of Zagreb, Croatia's capital and largest city. Afterwards, toast to your fellow travelers, host and guide during a festive farewell lunch. This evening is yours to further enjoy the eclectic architecture, cobblestoned alleyways, and famous café culture of this fascinating city. Sleep in Zagreb (B, L)

Day 13: Monday, September 12 - Your Journey Concludes

Your adventure concludes after breakfast today. Return home with a lifetime of memories!
