Spend a full day exploring Dubrovnik from every angle.

YOUR ADVENTURE BEGINS!

Day 0: Depart for sunny Croatia

Depart the USA for Croatia no later than September 11. Better yet, arrive a day or two early! The laid-back seaside town of Lapad—just 10 minutes from Dubrovnik—is the perfect spot to unwind. Think breezy waterfront hotels, charming cafés, and a welcome break from the Dubrovnik crowds.

Day 1: Saturday, Sept 12 – Dubrovnik, Croatia! All Aboard

Welcome to the Adriatic! Step aboard the 1st class MV Maritimo—luggage drop begins at 11:00am, with official embarkation at 3pm. Kick things off with a welcome feast and a dreamy sunset cruise along Dubrovnik's legendary walls. Dock nearby for your first night at sea-level luxury. Sleep on board near Dubrovnik

Day 2: Sunday, Sept 13 – Dubrovnik's Walled City

This morning, explore Dubrovnik's old town on a guided walk, capped with a cable car ride up Srđ Mountain for sweeping views of the walls and Elaphiti Islands. The afternoon is yours—wander, relax, or follow your guide's tips for hidden foodie gems. Feeling bold? Walk the iconic 1.2-mile loop on the city walls for a fresh take on the city. This evening, enjoy a seaside dinner. Overnight on board near Dubrovnik

Day 3: Monday, Sept 14 – Mljet National Park

Our destination today is the island of Mljet. We'll hike to visit the salt lakes in Mljet National Park, take a boat ride to St Mary Isle, and visit an ancient Benedictine monastery and a 12th century church. Sleep on board near Dubrovnik

Day 4: Tuesday, Sept 15 – Dubrovnik to Pelješac Peninsula

Our destination today is the Pelješac Peninsula, best known for its excellent wine. We'll venture inland to explore the rural areas, visit a local farm, and enjoy an all-inclusive dinner with traditional Croatian dishes made from local produce.

Sleep on board near the Pelješac peninsula

Day 5: Wednesday, Sept 16 – Korčula: Birthplace of Marco Polo

This morning, we cruise to the Island of Korčula, best known as the birthplace of Marco Polo. We'll stop for lunch in one of the secluded bays en route to Korčula. Upon arrival on the island, we'll have a guided walking tour of this enchanting town with fortified walls and unique herringbone-patterned streets. Korčula also has an abundance of restaurants where you can opt for a gourmet or casual dinner experience. There are many bars and clubs for those looking for evening entertainment.

Sleep on board near Korčula

Day 6: Thursday, September 17 – Glamorous Hvar

Today, we'll enjoy a swim in the Pakleni Islands as we sail up to Hvar. The longest island in the Adriatic, Hvar is renowned for its sunny weather, lavish lavender fields and breathtaking beauty. The island is also home to many historical landmarks, including a Renaissance cathedral with its original tower and the oldest community theatre in Europe, founded in 1612. Hike up to the town fort overlooking the harbor for lovely scenic views of the ship and the Pakleni Islands. In the evening, Hvar offers an abundance of entertainment - many restaurants, bars and cafés are open long into the night. Sleep on board near Hvar

Discover the beauty of the island of Hvar

Day 7: Friday, September 18 – Hvar to Split via the charming village of Grad or Milna

Today presents us with two delightful options. Your captain will decide which town and harbor will be the perfect port for today's excursion. Both Milna and the village of Grad on the island of Hvar offer their own unique charm and beauty.

Sleep on board near Hvar

Day 8: Saturday, September 19 – Split to Zagreb via Plitvice National Park

We disembark the MV Maritimo this morning in Split. Our drive across Croatia will take us to the Plitvice Lakes National Park. Nestled within the expansive Dinaric Alps, it spans nearly 70,000 acres, making it the country's largest national park. This picturesque sanctuary showcases a stunning limestone terrain adorned with lush forests and sprawling meadows. However, its most captivating feature is the awe-inspiring lake system. This natural marvel has captivated the minds of scientists and visitors alike with its interconnected series of lakes, cascading waterfalls, and subterranean watercourses. Divided into the upper and lower lakes, this enchanting landscape promises an unforgettable experience for all who wander through its pristine beauty.

Explore the park by foot before continuing to Zagreb. Sleep in Zagreb

Meet Your Earthbound Guide!

If Indiana Jones had a Slovenian cousin with a sunnier disposition, it would be Ervin Crnovic. An endlessly resourceful and downright delightful guide, Ervin does it all—and then some. When he's not expertly leading tailor-made Earthbound Expeditions through Slovenia and Croatia, you'll likely find him up in the Alps, with his wife and two children.

Born and raised in the postcard-perfect town of Lake Bled, Ervin brings a deep love for his homeland (he was born in the ex-Yugoslavia), paired with encyclopedic knowledge and an uplifting spirit that Earthbound guests rave about long after their journey ends.

About Earthbound Expeditions

Founded in 1997 by veteran guides Matthew and Danna Brumley, Earthbound Expeditions lovingly creates tailor-made journeys that inspire curiosity and discovery. Led by expert local guides, travelers explore history, art, food, gardens, and culture in Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Americas. Each trip encourages deep learning and engagement, turning every destination into a classroom of wonder. Guests return not just with memories, but with insights, appreciation, and a renewed sense of curiosity for the world.
