Enjoy the Trans-Alpine Train Experience

Day 6: Sunday, February 5 – Napier to Wellington via a Winery Visit

After breakfast, we'll head South towards Wellington. En-route we'll visit a winery in order to sample some of New Zealand's finest wines. With 84% of the country's sauvignon blanc plantings, Marlborough is New Zealand's (some say the world's) sauvignon blanc capital. With robust aromas and crisp flavors of gooseberry and capsicum, this varietal has been a glittering success for New Zealand. The region's second VIP grape is pinot noir. Acclaim is mounting for Marlborough's fragrant, mouth-filling reds which are richly flavored and supple. Other Marlborough wine specialties include fresh, vibrantly fruity chardonnays and crisp Rieslings.

Enjoy a tasting and a light lunch before continuing south and arriving in Wellington in the late afternoon. This evening is free to explore Wellington. Sleep in Wellington (B, D)

Day 7: Monday, February 6 – Wellington's Cultural Center

Today our extensive city tour will highlight Wellington's tremendous history and culture. Then we'll soak up a little history, art and culture at the Te Papa Museum. There is something for everyone here and you won't want to miss this museum which helps unravel the many mysteries of this land.

Your afternoon is free, but if you're looking for an excursion, we can highly recommend the cable car ride to the Wellington Botanic Garden! Here you can see the protected native forest, specialized plant collections, colorful floral displays and views over the city. Also, the Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa – the national museum and art gallery – is exceptional and well worth a visit. Sleep in Wellington (B)

Day 8: Tuesday, February 7 – Ferry and Coach South to Christchurch

After breakfast we depart by ferry for the South Island. Crossing the "big ditch" takes just a few hours. Upon arrival, we'll board a scenic coastal train and make our way to Christchurch.

Today we'll visit the best gardens of the city and the Antarctic Center. Sleep in Christchurch (B, L)

Day 10: Thursday, February 9 – TranzAlpine Train from Christchurch to Arthur's Pass

In a country known for spectacular scenery, today is tops! This morning we'll board the TranzAlpine train for a stunning alpine adventure from Christchurch to Arthur's Pass. Known as one of the most famous and beautiful train rides in the world, we'll traverse the fertile farmlands of the Canterbury Plains and have thrilling vistas over deep gorges. From Greymouth we'll continue by motor coach to Franz Josef town. Sleep in Franz Josef town (B, L, D)
