Your journey begins in Italy's Culinary Capital, Bologna

Your KJAZZ Journey Begins!

Day 0: Thursday, October 17 - Depart the USA for Bella Italia

Say arrivederci to the USA and make your way to Italy. Remember, you'll need to depart on or before October 17, 2024 to arrive in time to start the trip in Bologna.

Day 1: Friday, October 18 - Arrive in Italy's Culinary Capital, Bologna!

Buongiorno! Upon arrival in Bologna, you'll be greeted at the airport and escorted to your beautiful, centrally-located hotel. Check in is at 3pm. If arriving early, we suggest that you drop off your bags at the hotel and head out for a traditional passaggiata (afternoon stroll) with the locals or relax in one of the town's many colorful cafés. This evening, meet your guides and KJAZZ host Jerry Sharell for a welcome to Italy feast featuring regional specialities.

“Life is a combination of magic and pasta.”
Federico Fellini

Day 2: Saturday, October 19 - Culinary Delights!

Your day of gourmet delights begins when you meet your knowledgeable English-speaking guide in the city center of Bologna. Rich with architecture, history, student life and artisanal products, your guide will show you a fascinating side of Bologna most tourists never discover. Together we will visit the historic medieval market, a one-of-a-kind foodie experience! See (and sample) the huge rounds of mortadella, flavorful ciccioli and sausages and mouth-watering cheeses. Your culinary tour will include a tasting of Prosciutto di Parma and the celebrated, Balsamic Vinegar of Modena and of course, Parmigiano Reggiano cheese—all locally produced.

Then, it's a short stroll over to the University of Bologna. Here we'll tour one of the world's oldest and most beautiful anatomical theatres. Your guide will be happy to leave you at one of Bologna's wonderful trattorias for some of their famous filled tortellini pasta.

Day 3: Sunday, October 20 - A Culinary Tour Expedition & Antique Cars

After breakfast our journey continues through the Po River Valley to Modena. This historic region is known as “Emilia-Romagna.” And the area is home to so many culinary specialities that have led to Italy's worldwide fame: Parmigiano Reggiano cheese, Parma ham, traditional balsamic vinegar from Modena, Culatello salami, tagliatelle and tortellini pasta. Who hasn't heard of at least one of these? Your culinary tour will include a tasting of Prosciutto di Parma and the celebrated, Balsamic Vinegar of Modena. After an included multi-course feast we are off to the world-renowned Ferrari Museum! Note: The Provence of Emilia Romagna, was also the home to opera star Luciano Pavarotti, opera composer, Giuseppe Verdi and film maker, Federico Fellini!

Day 4: Monday, October 21 - A Day with Michelangelo and Da Vinci

This morning we'll drive the short distance to bustling Florence. Though teeming with tourists, Florence is still well worth the intellectual and physical effort, for inside the city walls lies one of the world's greatest collections of paintings, architecture and sculpture. Simply said, the city contains the entire history of the Renaissance. Works by Michelangelo, Da Vinci, Brunelleschi and their fellow masters sit side by side in the Florence's world-renowned galleries.

This afternoon we'll tour the Galleria dell'Accademia which houses Michelangelo's celebrated David and his unfinished and powerful Slaves, along with works by Perugino, Giambologna, and Botticelli.

In the late afternoon we depart bustling Florence for the tranquil Tuscan hill town, Montecatini. Sleep in renowned Tuscan Spa Town, Montecatini (B, D)

Day 5: Tuesday, October 22 - The Tuscan Hill Town of Lucca

Today, it's a short drive to one of Tuscany's most charming hill towns, Lucca! Together, we'll walk in Puccini's footsteps by visiting the very home where Puccini was born and Torre del Lago where the great master lived and worked. Puccini is buried inside a small chapel inside the villa.

For lunch, we will dine in a restaurant loved and frequented by Puccini himself. The afternoon is yours to explore the little alleyways, cafes and shops of charming Lucca. This evening you'll be treated to a special jazz performance. Sleep in the spa town of Montecatini (B, L)

Spend a day exploring the Tuscan hill town of Lucca

“Open my heart and you will see graved inside of it, “Italy.”

- Robert Browning

Day 6: Wednesday, October 23 - Hill Towns, Vineyards & Hot Thermal Waters

Enjoy a relaxing morning in Montecatini. Take a hike up to the old town or visit one of the many spas, shops or cafés before meeting your guide and host for an outing to a nearby winery. Here we'll learn first-hand what makes Tuscan wines so unique and loved the world over. A delightful Tuscan lunch is included today.

Sleep in Montecatini (B, L)

Day 7: Thursday, October 24 - All Roads Lead to Rome

En-route to Rome today, we'll enjoy a special wine tasting and country lunch. In the late afternoon we arrive in Rome.

True to the adage “all roads lead to Rome,” our journey brings us to the capital. If you love ancient history, colorful markets and world-class museums, you will surely fall in love with Rome. Enjoy an independent dinner upon your arrival. Sleep in Rome (B, L)

Day 8: Friday, October 25 - In the footsteps of Julius and Augustus

Today we set off to explore what was once the political heart of the Roman Empire. In doing so, we will literally be walking in the illustrious footsteps of Julius, August, Nero and Trajan. Accompanied by a local historian, we'll stroll down the via Sacra from the Capitoline Hill to the Coliseum. After, enjoy an included lunch together. The afternoon is yours to relax or you may choose to continue to explore the many sights of Rome. Tonight, enjoy a special jazz outing. Sleep in Rome (B, D)

Enjoy an in-depth walking tour of historic Rome

Day 9: Saturday, October 26 - Colorful, Vibrant Neighborhoods

Enjoy a fascinating walk across what was once ancient Rome (it's not as big as you might think). Our local guide will highlight the history and architecture of the gorgeous Campo di Fiori (flower market), Piazza Navona, the Pantheon, the Spanish Steps and Fountain of Trevi.

And since many of our fellow travelers have a very early morning flight to catch the following day, let's enjoy a hearty multi-course farewell feast in a charming trattoria in the heart of Rome. Are you wishing to visit the Vatican Museum and Saint Peter's Cathedral? This afternoon would be the perfect time to do so. Your guide will be available to assist you with information about additional sites you might want to visit. Enjoy a special jazz outing in Rome. Sleep in Rome (B, L)

Day 10: Sunday, October 27 - Return Home with a Lifetime of Memories

Your KJAZZ journey to Italy concludes today after breakfast. You may wish to spend an additional night or two in Rome. (B) Buon Viaggio!

Meet Your Host, Jerry Sharell!

With a stellar history and hit-making track record, Jerry F. Sharell's experience in the entertainment industry has brought success with each endeavor. In addition to that success, Sharell brings unmatched passion, creativity and drive for what he does.

For 13 years Sharell has hosted and produced “Weekends with Sinatra & Sharell” (Saturday 10pm – Midnite/Sunday 10am – Noon). As a lifetime fan he has become an “expert” on the life and the recording history of Mr. S. The Sharell show streams “live nationwide” and has regular listeners in North and South America, Italy and Russia!

From 2002-2010, Jerry served as President/CEO for the non-profit charity, Society of Singers founded by Gini Mancini. He co-produced fund raising events that garnered millions of dollars and nationwide attention in helping hundreds of “singers in need”. Their yearly Ella Awards gala had Sharell oversee tribute shows honoring: Barry Manilow, Celine Dion, Elton John, Johnny Mathis, Gladys Knight, Andy Williams, Herb Alpert, Lani Hall and Natalie Cole.

In '73, he was hired by David Geffen to help manage the Asylum Record label which then merged with Elektra Records. In his ten years at the label he served in Senior Executive positions in areas of creative services, international relations, artist development and promotion while helping to establish the careers of: The Eagles, Linda Ronstadt, Jackson Browne, Carly Simon, Joni Mitchell, Judy Collins, The Cars, Queen, Motley Crue, Grover Washington Jr., Bread and many others.

He and his wife, Gigi, live in Woodland Hills, California. He has three children and two grandchildren. Sharell is past president of City of Hope, Entertainment Division and a voting member of The Recording Academy for 50 years. They are excited to share the stunning sights and flavors of Italy with KJAZZ listeners! You can read Jerry's full bio at: <https://kkjz.org/programming/hosts>
