YOUR GARDEN JOURNEY BEGINS

Meal Key:

B= Breakfast / L = Lunch / D = Dinner

Air Travel Days: January 18 & 19 – Depart the USA

When crossing the International Date Line, travelers “lose” a day on the journey to New Zealand but gain it back when returning home. To arrive in time for the tour, depart the United States no later than January 18 to arrive in Auckland on January 20.

Day 1: Wednesday, January 20 - Welcome to Auckland!

Arrive in Auckland, New Zealand’s largest city, where sparkling harbors and volcanic hills create a dramatic natural setting. As most flights from the US arrive early in the morning, we’ll start the day with breakfast and a brief orientation, before traveling to the forested Waitākere Ranges to visit the Arataki Visitor Centre. From here, enjoy sweeping views across lush rainforest and the rugged coastline before taking a walk beneath towering kauri trees, among the largest and oldest trees on Earth. A welcome lunch is included. Overnight Auckland Hilton (B, L)

Day 2: Thursday, January 21 – Gardens of the Matakana Coast

A scenic drive north brings us to the Matakana region, known for its creative garden culture. We begin at Omaio Garden, a remarkable private garden where sculpture and planting combine to create a bold and immersive landscape composition. Later, we explore the Brick Bay Sculpture Trail, where contemporary artworks are thoughtfully set among vineyards, wetlands, and regenerating forest. After a day rich in art and nature, we return to the Hilton Auckland for an overnight stay. Overnight Auckland Hilton (B, L)

Discover Hamilton Gardens

Day 3: Friday, January 22 - Auckland's Great Gardens

Today we visit two of the country's most significant gardens. At the Auckland Botanic Gardens, discover extensive collections of temperate plants, innovative landscape displays, and important native plantings.

Later we explore the magnificent Ayrlies Garden and Wetlands, an award-winning private garden combining lush borders, expansive water features, and ecological wetlands. This evening, enjoy dinner on Auckland's waterfront.

Overnight Auckland Hilton (B, L, D)

Day 4: Saturday, January 23 – South to New Plymouth via Hamilton Gardens

Travel south toward Taranaki with a stop at the extraordinary Hamilton Gardens. Unlike traditional botanical gardens, Hamilton Gardens presents a global journey through garden history. Its themed gardens recreate the design traditions of Italy, Persia, Japan, England, and beyond. After our visit and a light lunch, we continue to New Plymouth, gateway to the fertile Taranaki region.

Overnight New Plymouth International hotel (B, L, D)

Explore Waiangana Gardens

Days 5 & 6: January 24 & 25 - Gardens of Taranaki

Over two relaxed days in New Plymouth, we explore a rich mix of gardens shaped by artistry and place. We begin at Saxton Sanctuary, a tranquil, design-led garden, followed by lunch at the elegant Nice Hotel. In the afternoon, we visit Waiangana Gardens, known for its intimate scale and creative planting.

The next day, choose between the vibrant Pukeiti Rhododendron Garden or the refined Arts and Crafts setting of Tūpare. We then continue to Te Kainga Marire, a beautifully composed native plant garden. If time allows, we end with a stroll through Pukekura Park, a scenic local favorite. Sleep in New Plymouth International hotel
(Breakfast, plus one additional multi course meal daily)

Day 7: Tuesday, January 26 – South to Queenstown: Gateway to the Southern Alps

Fly south to Queenstown, a spectacular alpine town beside Lake Wakatipu. Enjoy a free afternoon to stroll along the lakeshore or browse Queenstown's charming shops and galleries. Overnight Hilton Queenstown (B, D)

Day 8: Wednesday, January 27 - Walter Peak Farm Garden & a historic steamship

Board the historic TSS Earnslaw steamship for a scenic cruise across Lake Wakatipu. At Walter Peak High Country Farm, explore charming homestead gardens surrounded by dramatic alpine scenery. Overnight Hilton Queenstown (B, L)

Cruise stunning Milford Sound

Day 9: Thursday, January 28 – Stunning Milford Sound

Today we travel by private coach into Fiordland National Park to experience the breathtaking fjord of Milford Sound. This UNESCO-recognized landscape is renowned for its towering cliffs, cascading waterfalls, and lush temperate rainforest. Our excursion includes lunch and a spectacular cruise through the fjord. We return to Queenstown in the early evening. Overnight Hilton Queenstown (B, L)

Days 10: Friday, January 29 – Transfer to the town of Dunedin

The journey from Queenstown to Dunedin unfolds as a gentle tapestry of changing landscapes, where alpine grandeur gives way to the warm, open beauty of Central Otago. Leaving the lakes and peaks behind, the road winds through sunlit valleys, vineyard-covered slopes, and rugged gorges carved by the Kawarau River, before softening into rolling farmland and wide pastoral plains. Along the way, the light seems to stretch endlessly across golden hills and quiet countryside, creating a sense of space and calm. As you approach Dunedin, the land grows greener and more coastal, with a subtle, windswept elegance that hints at the sea beyond—an ever-changing journey that is as serene as it is beautiful. Overnight at the Distinction Dunedin Hotel (B, D)

Spend a morning at Larnach Castle Gardens

Day 11: Saturday, January 30 - Larnach Castle Garden & Dunedin Botanic Garden: Delight in a full day of horticultural treasures. Begin at Larnach Castle Garden, where sweeping terraces, lush flower borders, and hidden corners reveal vibrant seasonal blooms, fragrant shrubs, and elegant Victorian plantings at every turn. After a leisurely lunch, wander the Dunedin Botanic Garden, a serene haven of towering trees, the historic Rhododendron Dell ablaze with color, and world-class Camellia collections. Each path invites discovery, with textures, scents, and colors that will inspire and captivate every garden enthusiast. Overnight at the Distinction Dunedin Hotel (B, D)

Day 12: Sunday, January 31 - Gardens and Coastal Wonders en Route to Christchurch: As we journey north toward Christchurch, the landscape unfolds with rolling hills, rugged coastline, and serene farmland. If time allows, we pause near Oamaru to admire the striking Moeraki Boulders and the sculpted Waitaki limestone formations, natural wonders that complement New Zealand's cultivated beauty. Continuing on, we visit Broadfield Garden, a thoughtfully landscaped haven just south of Christchurch, where native plants, textured foliage, and seasonal blooms showcase the elegance and diversity of New Zealand horticulture. This scenic journey blends coastal charm, geological marvels, and botanical delights, offering a perfect introduction to Christchurch's celebrated gardens.

Day 13: Monday, February 1 - Gardens Christchurch

Known as New Zealand's "Garden City", Christchurch is filled with gems including the celebrated Ōhinetahi Garden - sculpture and landscape overlooking Lyttelton Harbour. In the afternoon, spend some time exploring the old city center or stroll through the Christchurch Botanical Gardens. Overnight Drifter Hotel Christchurch (B, D)

Day 14: Banks Peninsula Gardens

Discover the enchanting gardens of the Banks Peninsula, where coastal beauty and artistic expression meet. Wander the dramatic terraces of Fisherman's Bay Garden, a masterful coastal retreat, and be delighted by the playful creativity of The Giant's House in Akaroa, with its whimsical mosaics and sculptural plantings. In the evening, we come together for a gala farewell dinner, celebrating the beauty, friendships, and inspiration of our New Zealand garden journey. Overnight Drifter Hotel Christchurch (B, D)

Day 15: Thursday, February 3 – Tour Concludes

Transfer to Christchurch International Airport for flights home. Guests wishing to extend their stay may consider a scenic train journey to Arthur's Pass National Park in the South Alps. (B)

Meet Your Garden Host & Guide

Dan Hinkley is a teacher, writer, lecturer, consultant, nurseryman, naturalist, and gardener. Above all, he is committed to solid and sustainable horticultural practices, above average garden plants, landscapes of distinction and raising the collective awareness of the diversity of plant life on Earth as well as the magic and mysteries of our natural world.

Jack Hobbs (MNZM) is probably the best-known horticulturist in New Zealand. He was manager of the Auckland Botanic Gardens for 30 years until he retired in 2024. He has co-authored several gardening books and written numerous articles for gardening magazines, is an acclaimed photographer, a popular television and radio presenter, and a successful plant breeder widely acknowledged as the first systematic breeder of New Zealand native plants. He has led numerous garden and wildflower tours around the world and within New Zealand over the past 25 years.
