The city is also home to three historic opera houses, the Czech Philharmonic, and several chamber orchestras, as well as the historic Estates Theatre. The Estates Theatre is deeply linked with the name of W. A. Mozart. Besides other of his works, it was the venue of world premieres of two Mozart operas: Don Giovanni (on 29 October 1787 – conducted by the composer himself) and La clemenza di Tito (in 1791, to mark the coronation of Leopold II). Enjoy a welcome orientation and dinner before settling in for the night at your hotel. Sleep at the Marriott, Prague Old Town (D)

Day 2: May 18 - Discover Prague

Our historic walking tour of Prague begins! We will stroll to Prague's most famous landmarks. En route to the Old Town Square, we'll tour the illustrious Estates Opera House. Our journey continues to Prague's stirring, perfectly preserved medieval Jewish quarter. Consisting of five synagogues, a Ceremonial Hall, and a cemetery, Prague's Jewish Museum was created in 1906 to protect precious buildings and treasures for the local Jewish community.

After enjoying a traditional Czech lunch, the afternoon is yours to further explore Prague. This evening, join your Performance Today host, Fred Child, and attend the Prague Spring Music Festival! Sleep at the Marriott, Prague Old Town (B, L)

Day 3: May 19 - A full day to Explore Prague

After breakfast, we will make our way past Charles University to Charles Bridge. We'll cross the very river that lends its name to Smetana's symphonic Czech masterpiece, the Vltava. Then we'll ascend the hill to one of Europe's most impressive castles: Prague Castle. A UNESCO World Heritage Site, the castle consists of a large-scale composition of palaces and ecclesiastical buildings of various architectural styles, from Roman-style buildings from the 10th century to Gothic modifications in the 14th century. Enjoy another fabulous classical concert is included this evening. Sleep at the Marriott, Prague Old Town (B, L)

Day 4: May 20 - Prague

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast this morning; the day is yours to explore and stroll. Suggestions include the Mucha Museum, Kafka Museum, Decorative Arts Museum, and the National Museum, which is the largest museum in the Czech Republic.

Alternatively, dive deeper into the life of Dvorak with a visit to the Antonín Dvořák Museum, established in 1932. Inside, guests can see dozens of letters and household objects Dvořák once used during his lifetime. Perhaps the two most famous objects in this museum's collection are Dvořák's piano and viola.
