APRIL IN PARIS!

TEN DAYS OF JAZZ, ART, CULTURE AND HAUTE CUISINE WITH JOSE RIZO, BUBBA JACKSON & DAVID BENOIT

KJAZZ globetrotters are embarking on their third private floating musical festival cruise: this time to Paris and Normandy. And, we'd love for you to join us and fellow public radio jazz lovers!

We've chartered the first-class MS Amadeus Diamond just for all of us jazz-loving public radio supporters. We'll hear a little gypsy jazz, Django Reinhardt style, throw one of our famous Latin jazz dance parties and travel back in time with music from Billie Holiday, Louis Armstrong and Nat King Cole. Also featured are several onboard concerts performed by outstanding European musicians.

The trip begins with two pre-cruise nights in Paris, once home to a plethora of American jazz performers, writers, artists and musicians, it's the perfect place to witness the on-going love affair between Paris and jazz. And then to start our floating jazz festival, we'll cruise up the Seine to experience highlights such as Claude Monet's Giverny Gardens, the spectacular Mont St Michel, the D-Day Beaches of WWII and delightful Norman villages and historic towns. We'll also savor the local culinary specialties the French are so famous for: creamy cheeses, crisp cider and other local delights.

A good time is guaranteed – we hope you'll join our floating jazz festival from Paris to Normandy!

Jose Rizo and Bubba Jackson
KJAZZ 88.1 on-air hosts

Arc de Triomphe

YOUR TRIP HOSTS & JAZZ ARTISTS

Bubba Jackson

KJAZZ Host

Bubba Jackson was born in Harlem, New York. As a radio personality and Program Director he has worked as on-air host at many of the top jazz stations around the country. The Los Angeles Times Calendar section states "One of the best things about drive-time in L.A. is Bubba Jackson." Bubba has been a concert producer, promoter, talent coordinator and master of ceremonies. His festival experience includes the Prince Hall Shriners' Concert in Los Angeles, New Orleans and St. Louis, The Millennium Music Festival (Los Angeles), the Doheny Blues Festival, Big Time Blues Festival, the Central Avenue Jazz Festival and many others. Bubba Jackson is well-known and well-liked as an award winning radio and television personality, seasoned concert producer and a skilled researcher with exceptional organizational skills.

Jose Rizo

KJAZZ Host

Jose Rizo was born in Guadalajara, Mexico and raised in Oxnard, California. He played trumpet in high school, but it was not until he was a student at U.C. Santa Barbara that he developed his passion for jazz. In the late 70s, Jose was the founder of "Radio Chicano", a student and community broadcasting organization based on the Santa Barbara campus at KCSB, where he served as program director for two years. Rizo began hosting "Jazz on the Latin Side" on KLON (now KJAZZ) in early 1990. He was intricately involved on KLON's "Latin Jazz Club Caravans" and served as a member of the Grammy's Screening committee for Latin Jazz. He has been the artistic director of the Luckman Fine Arts Latin Jazz Concert Series and involved in the "Central Avenue Jazz Festival" since its inception.

David Benoit

Piano

Over the last quarter century, composer and pianist David Benoit has been a passionate musical innovator committed to the exploration of many different art forms on the American landscape. A five-time GRAMMY nominee for his seminal contributions to the genre of contemporary jazz, Benoit has also embarked on a multi-faceted journey into the classical music world. This has led to guest pianist and conductor spots with numerous top orchestras, four performances at Carnegie Hall (including one with Leonard Bernstein at the podium), a performance on the steps of the Capitol Building with the National Symphony for the annual PBS July 4th event, and the creation of his new orchestral work, Dolores Del Carmen, and chamber composition, Music for Two Trios.

Franck Amsallem

Jazz Artist / Programmer

Algerian-born, Franck grew up in Nice, France. He studied in the US at Berklee College of Music and Manhattan School of Music. In 2002, Franck returned to France and settled in Paris. He has performed in countless jazz festivals around the world and has received high praise from the critics for his numerous recordings, both piano and vocal. Franck has composed pieces for big band and for string and chamber orchestra.

Denise King

Remembering Billie Holiday

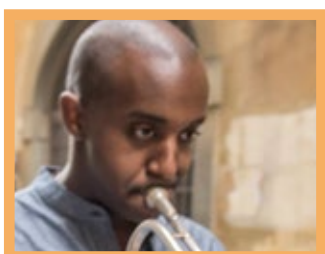

Vocalist Denise King was born and raised in Philadelphia where she was exposed to R&B as a child and discovered jazz at twelve years old, thanks to an uncle who was an avid jazz fan and record collector. Denise spent many hours listening to her favorite jazz musicians and singers learning lyrics and phrasing. After a lengthy career in the medical field and working as a family-planning counselor, King started singing at club gigs around Philadelphia and eventually switched careers. In 2008, King relocated to Paris and began touring extensively in Europe. She currently has a four CD contract with Azzurra Records. Denise King has delighted audiences worldwide.

Gustave Lundgren

An evening with Django Reinhardt

Guitarist Gustav Lundgren is one of Sweden's most prominent jazz guitarists right now. He was born in Stockholm 1980, started to play guitar at age 12 and studied music in Stockholm, Bollnäs and Svalöv between 1996-2000. Gustav started to play at clubs around Stockholm at age 16 and made his first tour to Spain with his own trio at age 19. Between 2000-2012 Gustav toured worldwide with different jazz groups. He has recorded over 60 albums as a side man and 22 as a leader. Gustav Lundgren has been working with names like: Jimmy Rosenberg, Chris Cheek, Jorge Rossy, Doug Weiss, Antoine Boyer, Bill McHenry, among others.

Hermon Mehari

A tribute to Freddie Hubbard

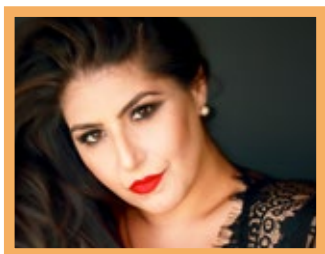

Trumpeter Hermon Mehari is a Missouri native, who is currently based in Paris. In 2010, Mehari graduated from the University of Missouri-Kansas City Conservatory of Music and Dance where, as a student, he earned early acclaim as one of the founders of Diverse whose debut album reached the Top 40 on the Jazzweek Radio Charts. Mehari has won numerous awards in prestigious international competitions. Mehari released his own debut album, "Bleu," in 2017. In addition to performing, Mehari works as an educator, participates in clinics around the world and maintains an active touring schedule.

Peter Horsfall

A Louis Amrstrong Evening

Trumpeter Peter Horsfall is an acclaimed trumpet player, vocalist and songwriter based in the UK. A vibrant and formidable presence on the London jazz scene, Peter has developed a reputation as a consummate bandleader and an innovative producer. Peter's latest album Nighthawks received critical acclaim, including a four star review in the Guardian. Described by All About Jazz as 'one of the year's most original releases', the record was featured on BBC Radio 2, BBC Radio 3 and Jazz FM. In addition to his solo projects, Peter is also a member of the Kansas Smitty's House Band and leads the traditional jazz ensemble Basin Street Brawlers.

Sacha Boutros

Vocals

Currently recognized by music critics, peers, celebrities, and musical legends, Sacha is one of the top jazz artists performing today. An innovative and creative entrepreneur, solo artist, musician, producer designer, composer, artist and humanitarian, Sacha has gone from a few US festivals to touring the world and back. Her recordings have hit the Top 10 charts in Japan, and she received several Grammy nods for best Jazz and Latin Jazz albums in 2008 and 2013.

Matthew Brumley

Earthbound Expeditions

Matthew Brumley is the founder of Earthbound Expeditions and has been leading and creating public radio and museum adventures worldwide for 25 plus years. After completing his undergraduate studies at the universities of Copenhagen and Moscow, he went on to attend the graduate program at the London School of Economics. He has lived in Copenhagen, Paris, London, Tel Aviv and San Jose, Costa Rica. Listen to Matthew's travel segment at KNKX – NPR Public Radio, Seattle.

YOUR FLOATING JAZZ JOURNEY BEGINS

DAY 0: APRIL 10, 2022 – DEPART USA

Your floating Jazz adventure begins. An optional group flight departs from Los Angeles for the City of Light – Paris!

DAY 1: APRIL 11 – ARRIVE IN PARIS

Our journey through Paris and Normandy officially begins in the historic heart of Paris. This afternoon enjoy a welcome lunch with your KJAZZ hosts and your Earthbound Expeditions guide. Sleep in the heart of Paris (L)

DAY 2: APRIL 12 – EXPLORE THE CITY OF LIGHT

After breakfast dive into France's past by visiting the historic center of Paris, including the Ile de la Cité, Notre Dame and the Left Bank. After an independent lunch, you may wish to consider spending an afternoon with Monet, Manet, Cézanne and Renoir at the acclaimed Musée d'Orsay. Enjoy an included jazz concert at a local club this evening with your hosts! Sleep in the heart of Paris (B)

DAY 3: APRIL 13 – BOARD THE MS AMADEUS DIAMOND

This morning, relax, visit a market, tour the Picasso or Rodin Museum or take a stroll down the iconic Champs-Élysées. This afternoon, we'll board the 1st class, privately chartered, MS Amadeus Diamond!

After checking into your cabin, learn about the history of jazz in Paris: a city that continues to be closely associated with the music that was introduced by American troops stationed in Paris during WWI. Soldiers started playing in casual groups around the city and after the war, African American musicians in particular were drawn to Paris due to the more accepting racial attitudes of the French. Enjoy a welcome dinner and jazz concert on board this evening. Sleep on board (B, D)

DAY 4: APRIL 14 – A DAY WITH VAN GOGH & JOSEPHINE BONAPARTE

Famous for its many visiting painters (Cézanne, Daubigny, Pissarro, Corot, Van Gogh), and also as being the burial place of Vincent Van Gogh and his brother, Theo, Auvers-sur-Oise is located just 25km north of Paris. Enjoy a stroll to view landscapes found in Camille Pissarro's paintings and see the cathedral. Then return to the ship for lunch. After lunch, join the excursion to Chateau de Malmaison, the former residence of Empress Joséphine de Beauharnais, wife of Napoléon Bonaparte. Your local guide will regale you with stories about the history of the estate and the famously passionate and stormy relationship of Joséphine and Napoléon. Return to our ship for dinner and concert on board. Sleep on board (B, L, D)

DAY 5: APRIL 15 – A DAY IN HISTORIC ROUEN

The city of Rouen, which stretches along the Seine, is Normandy's cultural, historic and gastronomic capital. Monet's canvases of the cathedral have made it the best-loved building in town, but many other sights stand out, including fine museums and the church dedicated to tragic visitor Joan of Arc. Enjoy a guided tour of the highlights of Rouen, followed by a special jazz concert. Sleep on board (B, L, D)

DAY 6: APRIL 16 – CHARMING HONFLEUR

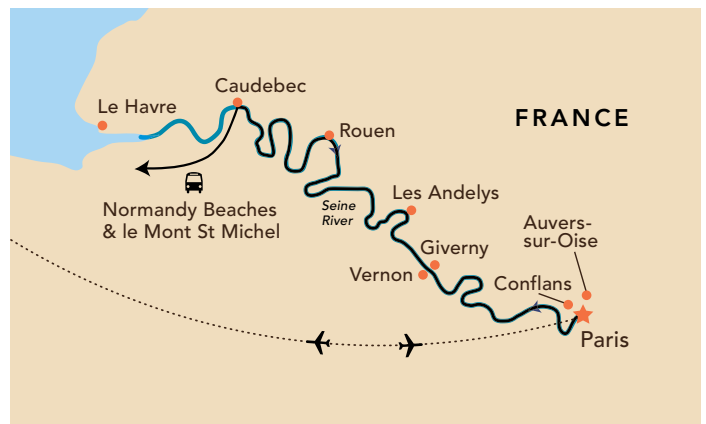

Honfleur, a town of painters and Impressionism, possesses that something extra that makes it irresistible. The changing light on the Seine estuary inspired Courbet, Monet, Boudin and many others. Enjoy a guided walk in this delightful seaside town and optional free time for lunch before returning to the ship. Sleep on board (B, L, D)

DAY 7: APRIL 17 – BATTLE OF NORMANDY & D-DAY BEACHES

Today's visit includes the major historic WWII sites of Normandy. Visit Gold Beach, Courseulles sur Mer and Juno Beach on your way to the World War landmarks of Omaha Beach, the deeply moving American Military Cemetery and the Debarkation Museum in Arromanches. Return for dinner on board. Sleep on board (B, L, D)*

*Lunch is served daily on board the ship. However, on full-day excursions, when the group is unable to return to the ship, guests will eat lunch independently.

Space is limited. Call 800-723-8454 or visit www.earthboundexpeditions.com to reserve your spot.

Monet's house at Giverny

DAYS 8: APRIL 18 – LE MONT ST MICHEL

Today's full-day excursion is to the stunning UNESCO World Heritage site of Le Mont St Michel.

Perched on a rocky island, having withstood the powerful tides of Normandy and Brittany for ten centuries, this Gothic-style Benedictine Abbey is a wonder to behold. Reaching the summit is for sturdy pilgrims, so be prepared to make the climb to the very top of the abbey for a spectacular view of the vast and surrounding bay. Return for dinner on board. Sleep on board (B,L,D)*

DAY 9: APRIL 19 – GIVERNY: MONET'S GARDENS

Enjoy a free morning to rest and relax. After an early lunch, we'll depart for Giverny, the village where Claude Monet lived and created the gorgeous gardens which inspired his Water Lilies. After the garden visit, you may wish to see the exhibit at the Museum of Impressionism or take a stroll in the delightful village. Return on board for a "Roaring 20s" gala for our last night on the ship! (Period attire optional) Sleep on board (B,L,D)

DAY 10: APRIL 20 – YOUR JOURNEY ENDS IN PARIS

Tour ends in Paris this morning. The optional group flight departs today. Airport transport included. Bon Voyage! (B)

Please note: the schedule and itinerary are subject to change due to port availability and other factors. All the sights and activities outlined in the itinerary will be offered, though the times and dates may vary. We also reserve the right to make spontaneous additions to the schedule.
