

CLASSICAL POLAND & PRAGUE

A Classical Music Adventure
with Classical MPR host Julie Amacher
featuring the Prague Spring International Music Festival!
May 6 - 16, 2022

Join friends of Minnesota Public Radio and fellow classical music lovers to celebrate the lives of Chopin, Dvorak, Smetana and Mozart! On this eleven-day classical music pursuit, you'll walk in Chopin's footsteps and relive his extraordinary life. Visit the very places where Frederic lived, loved and worked: the family home where he was born, the village church where he was baptized and the Frederic Chopin University of Music in Warsaw. Discover Poland's stunning cultural capital, Krakow. Visit the cathedral where the kings of this ancient land are buried, stroll the campus of the University of Copernicus and marvel at one of Europe's largest medieval squares. Our musical quest culminates in the Czech Republic, where we'll walk in the footsteps of the Czech Republic's greatest composers, Smetana and Dvorak! And to top things off, you'll attend the legendary Prague Spring International Music Festival. Don't miss out on this extraordinary musical adventure!

Old Town Square, Krakow

YOUR CLASSICAL ADVENTURE BEGINS...

Day 0: Wednesday, May 5 – Depart home city for Warsaw, Poland

Remember, you must depart the U.S. no later than today. An optional group flight will be offered.

Day 1: Thursday, May 6 - Arrive in Poland

Dzien dobry! (Good day!) Your musical journey through Eastern Europe begins as you land at Frederic Chopin International Airport in Warsaw, Poland. Guess arriving in conjunction with the group flight may join the complimentary transfer to the hotel. Enjoy a casual introductory walking tour of the old city center before meeting your Minnesota Public Radio host and Earthbound Expeditions guide for an orientation and welcome dinner.
Sleep in Warsaw (D)

Day 2: Friday, May 7 - Discover Warsaw

Warsaw is a fascinating city steeped in history, culture and, of course, memories of Chopin. For an overall impression of Poland's bustling capital city, we'll set off on a morning tour highlighting the city's most famous landmarks. We'll see the Royal Route with its aristocratic residences, historic churches and famous statues. In addition, we'll visit the Ghetto Memorial, the Monument of the Warsaw Uprising, the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, the Grand Theatre, Chopin's monument, the Belvedere Palace and the Old Town.

After a delicious lunch, we are off to the Chopin Parlor. The parlor was part of the apartment where Chopin spent some years before leaving Poland. Today, it contains furniture and instruments from his time there, including a 19th century Buchholtz piano. The exhibition is complemented by portraits including those of Chopin's parents and their children, as well as graphics depicting Warsaw in the early 19th century.

Day 3: Saturday, May 8 - In Pursuit of Chopin

Frederic Chopin is undoubtedly the best-known resident of Warsaw. He spent the first 20 years of his life in the city studying music, learning the manners of proper society and giving his first concerts. All the Warsaw newspapers wrote about the child prodigy. Walking the streets of Warsaw, you will pass many buildings where he lived, loved and worked.

Our day begins at Ostrogski Castle, which houses both the Frederic Chopin Museum and the Chopin Society. The museum contains the world's largest collection of Chopin memorabilia, comprising of various souvenirs indirectly or directly connected with Chopin or his work as a composer. The manuscripts, commemorative prints, portraits, posters, books, magazines, notes and a recording library (analogue and digital disc and tapes) and visuals library (negatives, positives, microfilms) come from domestic and foreign purchases, gifts and donations.

Next, we visit the Fryderyk Chopin University of Music, which is among the oldest and largest schools of music in Europe. Between the years 1826 and 1829, Chopin studied at the Main School of Music.

In the afternoon, we drive 30 miles west of Warsaw to the village of Zelazowa Wola, the birth place of Chopin in 1810. His house, once a thatched cottage, now resembles a romantic manor surrounded by a picturesque park full of a wide variety of plants. In 1931, Chopin's house became the Chopin Birthplace Museum, complete with a rich collection of memorabilia associated with the great composer. Sleep in Warsaw (B, L)

"All the same it is being said everywhere that I played too softly, or rather, too delicately for people used to the piano-pounding of the artists here."
Chopin

Day 4: Sunday, May 9 - South to Historic Krakow

After a hearty breakfast, we drive south to Krakow, one of Poland's most beautiful cities. A true survivor of war, Krakow is a colossus of art and architecture and Poland's best-preserved city. The Kings of Poland resided here, making the city the cultural and scientific center of the entire territory. Sleep in Krakow (B, D) *Depending on museum times and availability, we may stop at Auschwitz today en route to Krakow. Some may choose to sit in a café if you prefer not to join this moving, emotional tour.

Day 5: Monday, May 10 - Imperial Krakow

This morning, we'll join an engaging local guide for a walk back in time. We'll visit Central Europe's largest medieval market place at Rynek Glowny and continue to Wawel Castle, where generations of Polish kings were crowned and buried. The afternoon and evening are yours to further explore this breathtaking city at your own pace. We suggest enjoying a special dinner out and perhaps even a concert. Sleep in Krakow (B, L)

Day 6: Tuesday, May 11 - Historic district of Kazimierz, Krakow

Krakow itself had been a hub of Jewish civilization in Europe for several centuries, a situation aided by the tolerant mindset of Poland's Renaissance elite. The relationship between Poles and Jews was not always harmonious, but the greatest storm was brought by outside invaders in 1939.

Before World War II, the historic district of Kazimierz had been the heart of Jewish Krakow. Few Jewish families survived the conflict, and the trickle of families that returned in 1945 was too small to be called a community. For several decades, crumbling graveyards, synagogues and houses were the only palpable remains of six centuries of Jewish history in Krakow - Kazimierz was a realm of ghosts. When democratic changes came to Poland in 1989, much of Krakow was falling apart. Kazimierz, the heart of the old Jewish city, was in especially bad shape. However, the district has seen a revival in recent years, with artists and musicians opening up shops in once abandoned buildings.

After lunch, the afternoon is free to further explore the medieval quarter of Krakow. Tonight, we've planned an evening of traditional Jewish music and a festive kosher feast in the heart of Krakow's Jewish quarter, where we attend an entertaining Klezmer concert. Sleep in Krakow (B, D)

Day 7: Wednesday, May 12 - West to Mozart's Moravia, Czech Republic

This morning we make a pilgrimage to the infamous concentration camp of Auschwitz in order to fully understand the origins of the suffering that took place at the hands of the Nazis. Note: Your guide will offer suggestions and options for those who do not wish to take part in this emotional visit.*

After, we drive east to the province of Moravia, Czech Republic. The wine-loving Moravians considered themselves somewhat separate from their beer-producing brothers in Bohemia. Our destination - Olomouc - is rich in history, architectural beauty, and is a prominent university town. It also contains several large and richly decorated squares and, most famously, the Holy Trinity Column. At 115 feet high, the column is an astonishing example of the Moravian Baroque style, and is a UNESCO World Heritage site. Olomouc is also famous for its collection of colorful mosaics, the most unusual being the glockenspiel, which is strangely decorated with 1950 style communist motifs and figures. Before dinner, we'll enjoy a walking tour. Dinner tonight includes Moravian delicacies and regional wines. Sleep in Olomouc (B, D)

Note: The work of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, the brilliant Austrian composer and pianist, is also connected with Olomouc. At eleven, Mozart composed Symphony No. 6 in F major during his stay in the Hauenschild's Palace.

Day 8: Thursday, May 13 - In the Footsteps of Dvořák and Smetana: West to Prague!

After breakfast, we make our way west towards the soaring spires of Prague. We stop to explore beautiful Vysehrad Cemetery, the final resting place of the most honored Czech composers, artists, sculptors, writers, scientists and politicians. Here are the graves of Smetana, Dvořák and the 19th century Moravian-Czech artist, Mucha.

Prague is the birthplace of Franz Kafka and the city Mozart loved best. It's also the home of the Prague International Music Festival! For our first evening in Prague, let's enjoy a Bohemian feast together followed by a classical concert. Sleep in Prague (B, D)

Day 9: Friday, May 14 – The Prague Spring Int’l Music Festival!

From its mythological inception to the present, benefactors have placed Prague on the cusp of the divine. King of Bohemia and Holy Roman Emperor Karl IV refashioned Prague into a city of soaring cathedrals and lavish palaces. Our historic walking tour of Prague will start at its medieval center, the Old Town Square. We’ll cover some of Prague’s most interesting sights, including the Estates Opera house where Mozart himself conducted the Marriage of Figaro in 1787. Our tour will continue to Prague’s stirring medieval Jewish quarter. We’ll take time to savor this culturally-rich neighborhood and stop by the Old Synagogue, which has been a place of worship for over 700 years. You’ll have a free afternoon before meeting to enjoy a concert at the Prague Spring Music Festival.

Sleep in Prague (B, L)

Day 10: Saturday, May 15 - Prague’s Castle District and Evening

Concert: We start the day with a stroll to Prague’s most famous landmark - Charles Bridge- after which we’ll visit the historic castle district. Then, enjoy a farewell lunch with your Minnesota Public Radio host. The afternoon and evening are yours to further explore this city’s charming streets. Perhaps you’ll want to take in a Bohemian market, a world class museum or simply wander the wondrously preserved historic old town. Enjoy one last concert at the Prague Spring Music Festival. Sleep in Prague (B, L)

Note: Flights normally depart Prague quite early. You may wish to have an early night this evening in preparation for your trip home.*

Day 11: Sunday, May 16 - Return home with a lifetime of memories

A complimentary airport transfer will be offered to those on the group flight.

YOUR CLASSICAL MPR HOST – JULIE AMACHER

Julie Amacher's desire to introduce others to great music is what led her to radio. She began her professional broadcast career at a station in Sun Prairie, Wis. She went from rock 'n' roll to the Rocky Mountains, where she found her niche in public radio at KUNC in Greeley, Colo. Julie spent 13 years at KUNC, where she managed the announcers and their eclectic music format. During that time, she earned four national awards for best announcer. She joined Minnesota Public Radio in 1997 as an on-air host and also produces New Classical Tracks, a weekly podcast introducing listeners to new classical releases each week. Julie is the program director for Classical Minnesota Public Radio, and she is the new host for APM's nationally distributed concert program SymphonyCast.

About the Prague Spring International Music Festival

For more than 70 years, the Prague Spring International Music Festival has ranked among the top cultural events in the Czech Republic and in Europe. This presentation of the world's best musicians, symphony orchestras and chamber music ensembles is somewhat of a phenomenon, as it has survived the political upheavals and dramatic cultural changes in the seven decades of its existence. This is mostly thanks to its audience, who always appreciated and today still appreciates the true artistic quality on display.
