

Surf Soup TV Presents: Paper Son – A Journey Through Asian History

By Donna Kay Lau

Fun Activity: Paper Son Story Passport

Materials Needed: Blank paper, stapler, stamps/stickers, crayons

Fold blank paper into a mini passport and staple it together. On each page, draw or write something Unco or a “Paper Son” might have experienced.

Decorate the passport with imaginary travel stamps from China and America.

Share your pages with a classmate or group.

Reading Guide:

Before reading: What does “Paper Son” mean? What do you think the story is about?

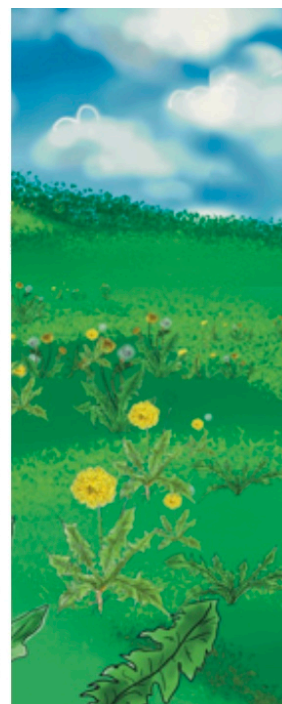

During reading: Listen for how Unco learns about his family history.

After reading discussion:

What challenges did immigrants face?

How do food and stories help us remember our culture?

Why is history important to share with others?

Extension: Interview a family member and write or draw one part of their story.
