We're All in the Surf Soup Together: A Creative Brand Giving Back with Purpose

Surf Soup Launches Global Stories with a Heart for Charity, Sustainability, and Community

LOS ANGELES, CA — Surf Soup isn't just a children's book series—it's a movement. Created by Emmy-honored artist Donna Kay Lau, Surf Soup combines creativity with community empowerment through environmental awareness, cultural storytelling, and charitable giving.

With themes like sustainability, hope, and inclusion, Lau's Surf Soup TV and books champion social good. From Honi the Honu Turtle to Hope Seeds, the stories encourage families to give back—whether by donating to ocean charities, raising mindful children, or simply leading by example. Donna aims to empower future generations through media, literacy, and love.

As Surf Soup grows, so does its mission: to support global families, inspire future artists, and nurture a kinder, more connected world.
