

Emmy-Honored Animator Donna Kay Lau Launches Surf Soup® Classes on Outschool

Surf Soup® School Brings Creative, Storytelling-Based Learning to Children Worldwide

26 October 2025

Los Angeles, California

Emmy-honored animator and author Donna Kay Lau, creator of the Surf Soup® TV and book series, is excited to announce that Surf Soup® School is now offering classes on Outschool, the leading online learning platform for children. "I chose Outschool because it allows me to connect directly with children and families, and bring creativity, storytelling, and movement into the classroom in a way that's engaging and interactive," said Lau. "I'm thrilled to share my experience as an animator and author and help kids explore their imagination through fun, hands-on activities." Surf Soup® School classes on Outschool will feature creative writing, art, animation, and movement exercises inspired by the Surf Soup® universe. These sessions are designed to encourage children to dream big, express themselves, and develop confidence while learning in a supportive online environment. Parents and educators can explore Surf Soup® School classes and enroll at Outschool: <https://outschool.com/teachers/Donna-Kay-Lau-Surf-Soup?signup=true&usid=yljQidTH>
