Learning Objectives

Students will:

understand how ideas turn into stories

explore different types of media (book, comic, video)

practice expressing thoughts and feelings creatively

build confidence in sharing ideas

Discussion Questions

What does EggOH mean by “broadcast love”?

Why did EggOH want to be in everything?

How did one page become something bigger?

What would YOU want to share with the world?

Activity 1: One Page Story (Core Activity)

Students create their own “one page” story.

Steps:

Fold paper into 4 panels OR use full page

Draw a character

Give them a message

Show how they share it

Extension: Present to class like a “live show”

Activity 2: Go LIVE Role Play

Students pretend they are EggOH

Hold a “microphone” (pencil)

Finish the sentence:

“Today I want to share...”

STEAM Connection

Technology + Art + Communication

Mini Lesson:

Books = storytelling

Comics = visual storytelling

TV/Live = performance storytelling

Students match ideas to formats.

Reflection
