Emmy-honored TV animator, author, and illustrator Donna Kay Lau has unveiled a major upgrade for fans and readers of her Surf Soup® Universe: Universal Book Links created through Booklinker. This new system gathers her full library of 160+ titles—including the Surf Soup® Series, Asian Adventures, Magical Hair Series, activity books, memoirs, fitness and motivational titles, and six-language translated editions—into a single, seamless shopping experience.

With these new universal links, readers can browse every Surf Soup® book from anywhere in the world, instantly accessing all formats available on Amazon and Apple Books. Each link intelligently adapts to the reader's region and preferred store, reducing friction and making the Surf Soup® Library more accessible than ever.

“This is a huge milestone for the Surf Soup® ecosystem,” said Lau. “My goal has always been to make my stories easy to discover, joyful to share, and available to every reader — now in multiple languages, across every device, all with one click.”

The new universal links support Lau's continued expansion of the Surf Soup® brand, which spans books, animation, educational content, and the Surf Soup TV® YouTube channel. The streamlined link system also strengthens her global reach as her catalog continues to grow with new releases in 2026–2027.

All Surf Soup® books—including core series, spin-offs, creative how-to titles, fitness and motivational books, and translated editions—are now live and fully shoppable through Lau's Universal Book Link collections.
