Emmy-honored animator, author, illustrator, Oscar-qualified filmmaker, and creator Donna Kay Lau announces new creative updates for Eggoh, the heartwarming character from the growing Surf Soup® TV universe, known for spreading love, joy, and imagination to children and families. As part of the expanding Surf Soup® brand, which includes books, publishing, merchandise, and family storytelling, Eggoh will be featured in upcoming book releases, refined editions, new hardback offerings, and a finished library of titles now being organized into new book set discounts available through Surf Soup® TV. Through Surf Soup® TV, the brand is expanding its family entertainment content with animated storytelling, live creative broadcasts, and new launch experiences designed for children and families. Fans can also follow along on YouTube for upcoming VTuber live experiences, launches, and behind-the-scenes creative updates as Eggoh's world continues to grow. “Eggoh just wants to broadcast love,” said Donna Kay Lau, creator of Surf Soup® and Surf Soup® TV. “This next chapter is all about bringing that joyful energy to families through books, animation, and live creative experiences where audiences can connect with the story world in real time.” This announcement marks another exciting milestone in the continued growth of the Surf Soup® creative universe, which spans children’s books, animation, music, digital family entertainment, and live storytelling. Families can follow the latest updates from Eggoh and Surf Soup® TV on YouTube and Twitch.
