

Surf Soup® Celebrates AAPI Heritage Month With Expanding Hardcover Collection

Inspired by Asian Traditions and Family Stories

30 May 2026

Los Angeles, California

Emmy-honored animator, author, and illustrator Donna Kay Lau, creator of the Surf Soup® universe, is celebrating AAPI Heritage Month with an expanding collection of hardcover children's books inspired by Asian culture, traditions, family gatherings, and food memories.

New and featured Surf Soup® hardcover titles include:

Surf Soup® Qingming Tomb Sweeping and Traditions

Surf Soup® Red Egg Ginger Party

Surf Soup® Moon Day

Surf Soup® Dragon Boat Race Festival

Surf Soup® Instant Ramen Noodles (currently in hardcover production)

The collection blends humor, heart, and cultural storytelling through hand-drawn illustrations and family-friendly adventures designed to introduce children to traditions that are often underrepresented in mainstream publishing.

The timing also aligns with the Dragon Boat Festival season, celebrated internationally through races, cultural events, and community gatherings.

Retailers, schools, libraries, gift shops, specialty stores, and readers interested in early hardcover availability may contact Surf Soup® directly regarding first delivery opportunities and upcoming releases.
