

Title: 🌟 Surf Soup® Global Reading Day

Surf Soup® Global Reading Day

Travel the world without leaving the classroom with Surf Soup® Global Reading Day! Kids learn vocabulary in multiple languages, building global literacy and cultural awareness. They can try writing their name in different scripts and draw favorite scenes from translated books, reinforcing comprehension and artistic skills. A reflection prompt rounds out the experience, allowing students to celebrate the language or word they enjoyed most. Bright visuals, engaging activities, and multilingual learning make this sheet a passport to exploration!

Section 1 – Vocabulary

Learn 3 words in each of these languages: Chinese, Japanese, German, French, Italian, Spanish

Learning Outcomes: Language recognition, global literacy

Space to write words

Section 2 – Compare Alphabets

Write name in another language's script

Learning Outcomes: Letter recognition, cultural awareness

Section 3 – Book Connection

Draw favorite scene from a translated book

Learning Outcomes: Comprehension, illustration

Section 4 – Reflection Prompt

“Which language or word did I like most?”

Outschool Statement:

Donna Kay Lau, creator of the Surf Soup® series, teaches live online classes on Outschool! Students can explore Surf Soup® stories, animation, STEAM projects, and creative activities directly with Donna. Enroll in her classes to bring these exciting learning experiences to life: https://outschool.com/teachers/Donna-Kay-Lau-Surf Soup?signup=true&usid=yIjQidTH