

Emmy-Honored Animator and Author Donna Kay Lau Selected for Pinterest Educational Cohort

Surf Soup® Creator Revives Pinterest Presence to Inspire Creativity and Learning

26 October 2025

Los Angeles, California

Emmy-honored animator and author Donna Kay Lau, creator of the beloved Surf Soup® book and TV series, has been hand-selected to join Pinterest's exclusive Educational Cohort. This prestigious program recognizes educators and creators who use Pinterest to inspire learning and creativity among audiences.

"I'm incredibly grateful for the opportunity to be part of this cohort," said Lau. "It's the perfect platform to revive my Pinterest account and share creative, educational content with kids, families, and fellow educators."

As part of the cohort, Lau is participating in four creative Pinterest challenges, running through November 23. Fans and educators can follow along and watch her Pinterest account evolve at @SurfSoup, gaining insight into her process and the innovative ways she shares educational content.

About
