When Donna gets a tummy ache, Great-Grandpa takes her pulse, picks fresh herbs, and shows her how plants from their garden can help care for family and friends.

Inspired by the history of Chinese American herbal shops, this Surf Soup® story celebrates family, tradition, and love, growing strong across generations.

Includes a kid-friendly herb glossary and a special author's note about the historic Chew Kee Store in Fiddletown, California.
