Other talents I have that I would like to share include:

In Christian service there is no unemployment. God has work enough for everyone. Do not just sit back and watch others work...look for ways to help with the harvest.

Jesus said, "The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest fields."

—Matthew 9:37-38

A special thanks for providing this information and for volunteering your time and abilities. May God continue to bless you and the First Presbyterian Church through you.
