

A Present Day Application*
Of The Declaration of Independence

*Inserted in fittingly “bold” letters, plus underlines.

“When in the Course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another (leader, or regime), and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinion of mankind (which the President and his administration do not show) requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation (or the critical need of reformation—primarily, a return to the pre-Obama government status, as much as that itself is in need of major reformation).

“We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal (have equal, natural rights), that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness -- That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, – That whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes, and accordingly all experience hath shewn that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train (or radical situation) of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism (a tyrannical misuse and abuse of position, power and authority), it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. – Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies (States); and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former (present) Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain (and would-be Presidential King of the United States) is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States (turning the republic into an oppressive form of government. i.e., socialism, or some similar centralized system of control). To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world (or country).

“He (and Obama) has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good (on Taxes, Regulations, Environment, Energy, Health and Welfare, The Military, Trade, Employment, The Economy, Financial Industry, etc.).

“He (and similarly, Obama) has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained, and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them (i.e., recently passed Arizona state illegal immigration law, and indecisive and delayed action in the Gulf Coast oil spill disaster).

“He (and likewise, Obama) has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable.....for the sole purpose of fatiguing (badgering) them into compliance, (and has appointed czars, advisors, etc. to carry out his ideological agenda, and sidestepping the Congressional process, thereby).

“He has dissolved (in Obama’s case. usurped, or defied the authority of) Representative Houses repeatedly, for (their, or anyone) opposing with manly firmness his invasions of the rights of the people.

He has refused to take proper action on border control problems, immigration reform, drug control, bad judicial decisions, etc.,” the State(s) in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has obstructed legal immigration, and shown other harmful, and inept leadership.

“In every stage of these oppressions, we have petitioned for redress in the most humane terms.” Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince (Obama, in his eyes, with sycophantic followers’), whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.(because his actions intentionally interfere with, and undermine their freedoms).

“He has obstructed the Administration of Justice by refusing to Assent to Laws (or to properly respond to appeals), for establishing (constitutionally conforming) Judiciary Powers (court decisions).

“He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers, to harass our people and eat out their substance.” This one is like bad history repeating itself, i.e., Obama’s czars, proliferation of agencies and bureaus, and the current expansion of IRS agents to enforce compliance with the National Health Insurance plan (foisted on America by Obama, his cronies, and a misguided, irresponsible Congress, who should have stopped it, but ignored the will of the majority of the people who oppose it vociferously and vehemently)!

There were many charges leveled at that British King, some of which, being similarly applicable to the Obama (mis)administration, should warrant the censure and removal of a president from office.

So, why aren’t there cries for the process of impeachment against the current abuse of powers, and betrayal of trust, of which Obama is guilty? Forget, for now, all the other protests going on, and get serious about what He—an imposter, and traitor, along with his army of co-conspirators are doing to undermine, and subvert this country’s freedoms, and constitutional rights. It is nothing less than treason!

They must be regarded as disloyal servants, which should be obvious by the very nature of their radical, Keynesian, socialistic actions.

Furthermore, anyone who cannot see the one-world government connection of the administration's policies, needs to look at the record of the largely clandestine movements and actions that have been going on in the new world order system envisioned by the international bankers, industrialists, academia, and other global power schemers, for decades.

Their plan comprises the proposed linkage of the three great powers of Japan, Europe, and the United States. I don't know just how China is regarded in all of this, with their more recent rise on the international scale. But their communist government would be very compatible with the ideology of the would-be ruling cabal.

For a few historical factors related to the movement, in 1973 David Rockefeller funded Zbigniew Brzezinski as the first Executive Director, of the organization named the Trilateral Commission. Brzezinski (Carter's Nat. Sec. Advisor) declared that "National sovereignty is no longer a viable concept", meaning that it was an obstruction to the plan of "interdependence" between nations, under the ruling class of international bankers, and industrialists who would manage the world economy, foster redevelopment, alleviate world poverty, fund developing countries' environmental needs, by redistribution of U.S., and other wealthy nations' money. They would also set and control monetary, and energy policies, national politics, etc., in a "peaceful evolution of the global system", all in a Marxist system of government. What else?

An example of the growing power and control of the Trilateralists, occurred during the oil crisis (embargo) years (1970's), when developing nations were forced to borrow over $50 billion dollars from multinational banks, mainly Chase Manhattan (The Rockefeller banking giant).

The Transnational Elites, using the United Nations as its vehicle, formed the International Criminal Court (1998 Treaty), with further intent to have (1) global taxing power, (2) outlawing of private gun ownership (1999 proposal), (3) the formation of Non-governmental organizations (NGO's), and other developments, such as front groups: The Council of Foreign Relations (CFR), The Bilderberg Group, Committee for Economic Development, etc.

A book, "Exposing the U.N.", by William Jasper, U.N. expert, uncovers revealing facts of the U.N.'s relentless main objective of achieving the goal of world government.

Note on the movie, "The Obama Deception": Obama is depicted as a pawn of the international elitists to loot the U.S., and destroy its sovereignty, by putting the country in permanent irreversible debt, etc. What else can explain the excessive spending and taxing methods of the unconscionable, destructive Obama policies?

The longer he stays in power, the more our traditional freedoms. and opportunities will disappear. And, for what? One man's narcissistic delusions of grandeur, and exalted ego, whose vengeful, socialistic mission is traceable to the admissions in his book, "Dreams of My Father", plus his association with well-known anti-American influences, and what should be obvious socialistic speech and actions taken during his political life to date, with worse to come if he is not prevented from it, by whatever lawful means can be employed.

Yet, in every case, the greater blame, and disservice to the country is to be laid at the feet of the millions of irresponsible people who were taken in, and brainwashed by his manipulative lies and wiles, and voted for him.

Whenever the people of a nation consent to be governed by a bad leader, either by majority vote, or any kind of failure to resist and refuse such ones--there is ironic justice in the result that they get the kind of government they deserve. The problem being that the other people, who opposed him, have to suffer the consequences, too--unless, and until they take whatever steps they can to free themselves from the oppressive ruler, or regime.

We are in that situation, and its only going to get worse, if we do not take action to stop it. Its no longer just party politics, it is a fight for the survival of the constitutional, free republic whereby our forefathers and their fellow citizens waged war against the ruthless, despotic control of the English government, some two hundred and thirty plus years ago--many of whom sacrificed their lives for the very freedoms and rights that are now threatened to be lost.

And if we aren't willing to live free, or die like they were, we will deserve the end we are presently headed for. Nor, does it really matter if the administration we are under, naively or intentionally, has caused the trouble we are in--they are at fault. There is an old adage, that remains essentially true--that "things of the same effect, are equal to the same thing." Excuses, or any other technicalities don't really matter. We are faced with an impending crisis that demands requisite action to overcome it, before it is either too late, or much more difficult to do anything about. May God help us all to do our duty, to restore and preserve our liberties, and carry out our mutual responsibilities, as fellow citizens, in this great free country that most of us love, and are thankful for. We are, indeed, called upon now to prove it!

Among most of the many millions in this country, I was taught and have sought to respect the office of the president--the position and the person (if possible). But how can we respect the person, if he himself does not respect the responsibility of that office, and the people who elected him to it--and who gave an oath to serve them according to their traditional rights and freedoms ("the consent of the governed")--but, instead, subjugates them to his radical, diabolical ideology. Which he, purposely and disingenuously, called a "change" of politics and governance--implying it to be a good change, when it has been nothing but a heavy-handed takeover, turning our nation from a free republic to an eventual oppressive, socialistic tyranny.

Because of which, coupled with his personal history of association with various bad social, political, and religious influences, I close with the following summation of some of Obama's serious disqualifications to be the president of this country—and maybe anything more than dog-catcher, or some other non-official job, where he couldn't do any serious damage. No offense intended against any professions.

He is, in my opinion (and hopefully the majority of the citizens of this country):

(1) Anti-American (that is, the traditional America that most of us have known and loved, notwithstanding its imperfections). He is only for the America he envisions, and is dedicated to turning a free America into an oppressed, governmentally controlled society. And, there are far too many Americans who cannot see that he is a wolf in sheep's clothing—plotting and executing the destruction of the monumental bastion of freedom and sovereignty that our nation has been for over two hundred years. Everything unpatriotic and traitorous that he has done, and stands for, suggests to me that he would desire to see his face chiseled on Mt. Rushmore with his sick, twisted idols: Marx, Hitler, Stalin, etc., rather than Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln, and T. Roosevelt, who if they were living would castigate and expose him for the unworthy scoundrel that he is! They would have seen through his false image, early on, like most of us should have. Even his personal ties to the domestic terrorist William Ayers are too serious to dismiss. And, there is much more that could be noted. It is all related to his anti-independent sovereignty ideology, adopted from his father's activist involvement in radical socialism.

(2) Anti-white. More racist himself, than most of those whom he calls, or infers as racial. His association with the violent diatribe, and ranting of the “Rev.” Wright (more accurately Irrev. “Wrong”), would almost alone have indoctrinated him against the white people of this country. But there are more direct, and implied indications of his racial hatred, as well.

(3) Anti-capitalist. His aversion to other people's wealth (probably not his own, true to form) is well documented, and attested to by his many references to it, and his socialistic obsession with the intent to “redistribute” that wealth to others less fortunate than the so-called rich, by whatever means he can use—taxation, regulation, restriction, or even some form of confiscation, if necessary. His spiritual, and political advisors Jim Wallis, Saul Alinsky and Cass Sunstein, are three definite examples of his socialistic philosophy.

(4) Anti-Jewish. Again, right in step with his mentor, the hatemonger Jeremiah Wright, and other associates like Rashid Khalidi, head of a PLO anti-Jewish organization. Also, other evidences of opposition to Israel, i.e., advising against Jewish continuance of West Bank settlement, and show of disrespect to Prime Minister Netanyahu during D.C. visit.

If the effect of the foregoing negative characteristics are not conclusive of Obama's disqualifications, they are too suspicious to ignore, or gamble with—considering the integrity, honor and responsibility that should be exemplary in a presidential figure. What he is, and what he has done to hurt this country, so far, definitely makes him impeachable. Can we not agree that he is just what our Declaration of Independence tells us to be on guard against, and to resist and remove such a tyrant from power? As long as he stays on his self-established throne, things will become increasingly worse, and our country will bear no resemblance to the free enterprise republic that we have been privileged to enjoy for more than two centuries.

We made the terrible mistake of blindly electing him, but now that he has shown himself to be the subversive imposter that he is, lets not allow him to stay in office any longer than due process requires. We have the power to restore our rights and freedoms, so lets use it before we become further subjugated, and oppressed, until we end up in history like Marx's Russia, Hitler's Germany, and Castro's Cuba! The thought of identifying our country as Obama's America, makes me angry and determined to do what I can to stop it from happening. I can pray, I can speak and write, I can vote against it, and I can revolt, if necessary—and so can we all who are like-minded, patriotic citizens!
