

Cross-country ski in York Region

Find groomed and ungroomed trails in Georgina, King, Richmond Hill, Vaughan and Whitchurch-Stouffville

By Amanda Persico, Adam Martin-Robbins YorkRegion.com

Cold Creek Conservation Area

Location: 14125 11th Concession, Nobleton, King Township

There are close to 7 km of trails with three designated for cross country skiers ranging in skill from beginner to expert. Trails are groomed once 15 cm of snow has fallen.

Pre-registration is required for equipment rentals. All buildings and washrooms remain closed.

Kortright Centre for Conservation

Location: 9550 Pine Valley Dr., Vaughan

This 325-hectacre, forested property has more than 16 kilometres of ungroomed trails some of which are suitable for cross-country skiing.

Oak Ridges Corridor Conservation Reserve

Location: 999 Bethesda Side Rd., Richmond Hill

A 175-hectare swath of green space in Richmond Hill is home to 15 km of trails, some of which can be skied on. You'll see wetlands, kettle lakes and forests teeming with wildlife and unique plant species.

Seneca College King Campus

Location: Seneca Collage, King Campus, 13990 Dufferin St., King Township

There's 14-kilometres of trails that are groomed after a heavy snowfall. Parking fees apply on campus. For free access, park on Keele Street or Dufferin Street and enter through the Oak Ridges Trail Association trail.

York Regional Forest

Location: forest tracts in Georgina, East Gwillimbury, King Township, and Whitchurch-Stouffville with 21 public forest tracts and 140 kilometres of trails, cross-country skiers have loads of options, at no cost. There are accessible trails in the Hollidge, North and Hall tracts.