

COURAGEMILL GHOST WRITING

There are 3 main ways CourageMill ghostwriters handle payment:

1. Per word

Many ghostwriters charge by word–this tends to be anywhere from $.30 to $2+ per word for nonfiction. CourageMill charge is $0.75 PER WORD for all creations.

2. Per hour

Few ghostwriters charge by the hour, but those that do usually charge somewhere between $50 – $250 per hour. CourageMill charge is $40 - $150 per Hour.

This can be difficult to gauge the final cost when trying to set a budget for the project because it's very difficult for the ghostwriter to accurately predict how long it will take to complete the book.

3. Per project

This is the most common pricing structure for a ghostwriter. As mentioned above, you can expect to pay between $25,000 – $100,000 for a nonfiction book. CourageMill charge is $7,000 - $25,000.

It is highly recommend only considering ghostwriters who bill by project. Sure, you can find good ghostwriters who charge by word or hour, but it's less common.

When working with a ghostwriter on a project rate, you can expect CourageMill to set up delivery milestones where we get a portion of the fee.

For example, we may request to get a percentage upon completion of the rough draft, certain chapters, the second draft, etc.

This is common and protects the CourageMill ghostwriter from doing a ton of unpaid work if things go south.

CourageMill Fees include:

1. Writing the complete book
2. Editing and Proof reading
3. Copy-write and Author Protections
4. Full Publishing on Kindle Direct Publishing
