Dear Friends:

This will be a High Holiday season like none other and we have high hopes to usher in a new year for all of us.

We are blessed to be able to offer virtual services with Rabbi Morris Panitz. The Rabbi will be leading prayers, songs, readings and giving sermons. We are working hard to bring you all of the spirit, kavanah, joy and meaning of the holidays.

Starting Friday night, 9/18 @ 5 pm

Get your Rosh Hashanah dinner ready early and join us on Zoom by phone at 5 pm! Our service will be about an hour and will end with Kiddush and blessings over special foods. Your kit contains items for the Kiddush, but if you would like, please have a pomegranate, dates, and leeks available for blessings.

On Saturday, please enjoy some of the online programming for the holidays that will be in your email box.

Sunday morning, 9/20 @ 10 am

Join us again for our Rosh Hashanah service including Shofar blowing.

For Yom Kippur, we will have 3 different services

Sunday evening, 9/27 @ 5 pm for Kol Nidrei

Monday morning, 9/28 @ 10 am for the morning services

Monday evening, 9/28 @ 5 pm for the closing services called Ne'ilah.
