Anthony Cabrera, Assistant Conductor

Anthony Cabrera is the former Artistic Director of the Miami Gay Men's Chorus, serving them for 14 years. Under his leadership, the chorus has introduced ground-breaking choral works for men's voices (Through the Glass Darkly (2010), Alexander's House (2013), and I Am Harvey Milk (2016), dealing with issues integral to the story and history of the LGBTQ+ community. The chorus also saw the development and expansion of the MGMC South Florida Choral Festival, which, for five years, featured over three hundred singers representing a broad spectrum of communities in South Florida.

Cabrera is the Assistant Director of Music Ministries at Coral Gables Congregational United Church of Christ (UCC), where he is also the Minister of Liturgical Arts. He is a singer with the Chancel Choir and CGCC's professional vocal ensemble in residence. In addition, Anthony is the Choral Director at the Young Women's Preparatory Academy–Miami Dade County Public Schools' single-gender public preparatory academy for girls. He teaches Humanities, AP Music Theory, and AP Human Geography and is the school's Director of Student Activities.

In 2021, Anthony accepted the position of Assistant Conductor for GMCSF and also conducts their vocal ensemble, Tropical Wave.
